

Divine Darshan on Vaikunta Ekadashi at Hare Krishna Golden Temple

Darshan and participate in the grand Vishesha Sevas.

On this holy occasion, the temple opened its doors in the early hours of the morning, enabling thousands of devotees to partake in the rare and sacred Vaikunta Dwara Darshan. The celebrations commenced at 5:15 a.m., with the ceremonial Vaikunta Dwara Pratishta, after which devotees were allowed to enter through the Uttara Dwara (North Gate) traditionally believed to bestow liberation and the Lord's divine blessings.

The first darshan of Vaikunta Dwara was offered to Vishwaguru Srila Prabhupada, followed by darshan of Swayambhu Sri Lakshmi Narasimha Swamy and Sri Radha Govinda, beautifully decorated in a Special Lakshmi Narayana Alankara.

The Special attraction of the day was a beautifully crafted form of "Sri Srinivasa Govinda" Installed at the Uttara Dwara resembling the Lord Welcoming his devotees entering through the Vaikunta Dwara. Throughout the day, the temple premises resonated with melodious Bhajans, Harinama Sankirtana and Devotional Chantings.

Sri Satya Gaura Chandra Dasa Prabhuji (Mtech IIT Madras), President of the Hare Krishna Movement, Hyderabad, addressed the devotees, underscoring the spiritual significance of Vaikunta Ekadashi. He stated, "This festival is a celebration of the Lord's profound love for his devotees, when one of his most revered devotees completed his earthly pastimes and returned to Hyderabad, December 30, 2025 :

The Hare Krishna Golden Temple, Banjara Hills, resonated with devotion and divine joy as Vaikunta Ekadashi was celebrated in a spiritually uplifting atmosphere. The auspicious festival marks the transcendental occasion when Lord Sri Vishnu Himself welcomed His dear devotee Sri Nammalwar into Vaikunta.

This event, a significant milestone in the Sri Vaishnava tradition, marks the sacred moment when the Lord's boundless love and divine blessings manifest in their fullest glory. On this auspicious occasion, the temple opened its doors to devotees, offering a rare and sacred opportunity to receive Vaikunta Dwara.

Vaikunta, the Lord Himself went to the Vaikunta Dwara to receive him. By passing through the Vaikunta Dwara on this auspicious day, devotees seek the Lord's grace, have their heartfelt desires fulfilled, and become eligible to enter Vaikunta themselves."

The festivities culminated in the evening with a Grand Maha Arati to Sri Radha Govinda and Sri Lakshmi Narasimha Swamy and Shayana

Arathi. Sumptuous prasadam was served throughout the day, with the temple making meticulous arrangements to ensure both seamless darshan and all inconveniences to Visitors.

Devotees from all walks of life participated whole heartedly in the celebrations, seeking the divine blessings of Sri Radha Govinda and Sri Lakshmi Narasimha Swamy.

Dr. M. Ramesh, IPS, Assumes Charge as Cyberabad CP

“Gachibowli Indian Chronicle cyberabad: Dr. M. Ramesh, IPS, a 2005-batch officer, today, (30.12.2025) assumed charge as the Commissioner of Police, Cyberabad. He succeeded Avinash Mohanty, marking a leadership transition.

He previously serving as IGP, Provisioning and Logistics, holding full additional charge of IGP, Police Transport Organization. “Speaking after assuming charge, Dr. Ramesh said that the foremost responsibility of the Cyberabad Police would be to uphold the rule of law and ensure impartial and fair treatment for all citizens, emphasizing professionalism, transparency, and people-centric policing. He underlined that maintaining law and order would remain the primary focus of all police activities to ensure a safe and secure environment for the public. He also highlighted traffic management as a key priority, directing that regular checks for drunk driving be conducted diligently. Regarding the upcoming New Year celebrations, he issued guidelines to ensure incident-free and accident-free festivities, while encouraging the police to actively consider citizens' feedback in all policing activities.

No Difference Between Accreditation and Media Cards: Minister Ponguleti Assures Journalists

“Taj Khan, Kaghznagar, December 30 (Indian Chronicle)““State Minister for Revenue, Housing, and Information & Public Relations, Ponguleti Srinivasa Reddy, has categorically clarified that there is no distinction between Accreditation Cards and Media Cards. He assured that all government benefits applicable to accreditation cardholders will equally apply to me-

fied that there is no distinction between Accreditation Cards and Media Cards. He assured that all government benefits applicable to accreditation cardholders will equally apply to media cardholders as well, urging desk journalists not to harbor any misconceptions.“The Minister stated that necessary amendments to Government Order (GO) No. 252 will be made and issued in writing to remove any ambiguity. He emphasized that desk journalists need not worry, as the government stands firmly with them.“On Tuesday, the Minister held discussions at the Secretariat with representatives of the TWJF and the Desk Journalists Federation of Telangana, addressing their concerns and clarifying various issues raised by them.““Some people are deliberately trying to create confusion. Do not believe such misinformation. There is no discrimination or bias. None of you should be anxious—I stand with you,” the Minister asserted. He made it clear that the government has no intention of viewing journalists in separate categories and reiterated that all welfare schemes will be uniformly extended.“The decision, he explained, was taken with good intentions and a firm commitment to support genuine and eligible journalists. He also pointed out that apart from Telangana, no other state in the country issues accreditation cards on such a large scale.“The Minister further announced that after the conclusion of the Assembly sessions, a comprehensive meeting will be convened with all journalist associations in the state, including desk journalists. He assured that opinions, suggestions, and recommendations from all stakeholders would be considered, and appropriate amendments and additions to GO 252 would be made to ensure greater benefits for journalists.“Those who met the Minister included TWJF state leaders B. Rajashekhar and Gandra Naveen, Federation President and General Secretaries Upender and Mastan, along with leaders Nissar, Vijaya, Rajaram, and representatives of the Sports Journalists Association, including Krishna and Srinivas, among others.

Senior journalist Lakshmana Rao passes away due to heart attack: TWJF Union journalist members express condolences

(Mandava Srisailam...Hyderabad, Indian Chronicle, December 30): Senior journalist TK Lakshmana Rao (70), renowned as a 'Mofussil Specialist', is no more. Lakshmana Rao, who wrote a unique chapter for himself in the Telugu journalism field, had been undergoing treatment at NIMS hospital in Hyderabad for some time due to illness and breathed his last on Tuesday morning due to a heart attack. Journalists and journalist associations expressed deep shock over his death.“Lakshmana Rao was born in 1954 in Prathipadu, East Godavari district. His father was Tempalli Anjaneyulu, a Grade One Telugu scholar. He completed his Intermediate in Pithapuram, East Godavari district, and his BA in Kakinada. He also earned a PhD. Due to his immense interest in politics, he had the habit of reading newspapers daily. In that process, an unexpected dream came true when he got an opportunity at the 'Udayam' newspaper. In 1984, he started his journey as a trainee sub-editor at the 'Udayam' newspaper under the leadership of renowned editor ABK Prasad. In his long career of approximately 38 years, he held various key positions in major daily newspapers such as Udayam, Andhra Bhoomi, Vaartha, and Sakshi. Senior journalist Pasham Yadagiri was his inspiration. He faced many setbacks in his professional life. He eventually established himself and rose to high positions, having a 38-year career in mainstream newspapers. He retired as an Assistant Editor at 'Sakshi' and has been leading a retired life for the past ten years. He is known for his support of rural journalists. Firmly believing that rural journalists are the foundation of the press system, he shared in their joys and sorrows and earned great recognition as a 'Mofussil Editor'. He sincerely followed the principle that "news should not be filled with false praise... it should be close to the truth... and should not hurt anyone." He always expressed concern about the current trends in journalism where harsh language is becoming increasingly prevalent. He moved many people with the excellent headlines he crafted for the news stories brought in by rural journalists. Lakshmana Rao is survived by his wife, a daughter, and a son. Lakshmana Rao's last rites will be performed on Wednesday (December 31) at the Journalists Colony in Gopannapalli.“TWJF Condolences“The Telangana Working Journalists Federation (TWJF) has expressed its condolences on the death of senior journalist TK Lakshmana Rao. Federation State Convener Mamidi Somayya stated that the services rendered by Lakshmana Rao to the field of journalism and to journalists, having worked in various prominent newspapers for over three and a half decades, are unforgettable. He lauded Lakshmana Rao, saying that the Telugu media industry has lost a great pioneer, and expressed his deepest condolences to Lakshmana Rao's family.

Uppal Excise Police Arrest Man for Selling Dry Ganja; 5.200 Kg Seized

“KISHORE VADDEPALLI, Uppal, December 30 (Indian Chronicle):“Acting on the instructions of the Malkajgiri DPEO and under the supervision of the AES, Malkajgiri, the Uppal Excise Police on Tuesday arrested a person involved in the illegal sale of dry ganja in the Uppal area.“Based on specific information, Uppal Excise Station House Officer B. Omkar, along with his staff, conducted a raid in the Hanuman Sai Nagar area of Uppal and apprehended the accused. The arrested person was identified as Sudhanshu Kumar, a native of Bihar, currently residing at Hanuman Sai Nagar, Uppal.“During the operation, the excise officials seized 5.200 kilograms of dry ganja and one mobile phone from his possession. A case has been registered against the accused. During interrogation, the accused revealed that he had procured the dry ganja from Bihar at a rate of ₹5,000 per kilogram, transported it to Uppal, and sold it in small packets at higher prices to consumers, thereby earning illegal profits.“Those who played a key role in cracking the case include Uppal Excise Inspector B. Omkar, Excise Sub-Inspector Srinivasulu, Excise Sub-Inspector P. Naresh Reddy, and other staff of the Uppal Excise Station.

RBI AGM Visits CFL at Mavala, Reviews Financial Literacy Initiatives

“Taj Khan, Kaghaznagar, December 30 (Indian Chronicle)““Reserve Bank of India Assistant General Manager (AGM) Gomathi, along with Lead District Officer (LDO) Gomathi and District Lead Bank Manager (LDM) Uthpal Kumar Dham, visited the Centre for Financial Literacy (CFL) at Mavala in Adilabad district on Tuesday (December 30, 2025).“During the visit, the officials reviewed records and reports maintained at the CFL and sought details about the financial literacy awareness camps being conducted at the village level. The RBI AGM expressed satisfaction with the performance of the CFL counsellors.“Addressing the gathering, AGM Gomathi emphasized the need to further strengthen financial awareness among rural populations and motivate people at the grassroots level to become financially literate. She stressed the importance of educating the public about banking facilities and consumer rights provided by the Reserve Bank of India and banks.“She also called for extensive awareness campaigns on digital payments and cyber frauds, highlighting the growing need for vigilance in the digital era. Additionally, she instructed that villagers should be informed in detail about unclaimed deposit amounts and made aware of the facility to recover such funds through the UDGAM portal.“AGM Gomathi underlined that Financial Literacy Centres play a crucial role in spreading awareness about banking services among the public.“CFL counsellors Kamalakar, Satyanarayana, and Bhoomanna were present during the programme.

Government Issues Stern Warning to Sarpanch, Deputy Sarpanch Over Misuse of Joint Cheque Power Misuse Will Lead to Removal from Office and Imprisonment, Government Cautions

“Taj Khan, Kaghaznagar, December 30 (Indian Chronicle)““The State Government has issued a strong warning to Sarpanch and Deputy Sarpanch, making it clear that any misuse or obstruction of Joint Cheque Power will invite severe consequences, including removal from office and imprisonment.“Importance of Joint Cheque Power“The government reiterated that the joint signature system of the Sarpanch and Deputy Sarpanch in the management of Gram Panchayat funds is a crucial financial safeguard.

Every rupee spent on development works must carry the approval of both elected representatives. However, officials have expressed concern that personal and political differences are being used to deliberately block cheque approvals, thereby seriously hampering village development.“Transparency Ensures Legal Protection“The government has directed that all decisions related to the utilisation of Gram Panchayat funds must strictly be based on Gram Sabha resolutions. Emphasis has been laid on online payments instead of cash transactions, and authorities have instructed that all expenditure details must be promptly recorded in official registers. Officials clarified that adherence to transparency will ensure smooth audits and provide legal protection to public representatives, warning that deviations could invite legal action.“Strict Punishment for Abuse of Authority“The government categorically stated that acts such as misappropriation of public funds for personal use, drawing bills without completion of works, submission of false accounts, and forgery of signatures will be treated as serious criminal offences. In such cases, the District Collector is empowered to register criminal cases, remove the guilty from office, and initiate imprisonment proceedings.“Power Struggles Stalling Development?“Officials have observed that in several villages, power struggles between Sarpanch and Deputy Sarpanch are becoming a major obstacle to development. The government warned that deliberately withholding signatures on bills for political reasons will be dealt with strictly. If an inquiry establishes that development works were intentionally obstructed, the District Collector has the authority to cancel the cheque-signing powers of the Deputy Sarpanch, the government clarified.

Telangana Extends Journalists' Accreditation Cards Validity Till February 28, 2026

“Taj Khan, Kaghaznagar, December 30 (Indian Chronicle)““The Government of Telangana has extended the validity of existing State and District Journalists' Accreditation Cards by two months, from January 1, 2026 to February 28, 2026, to avoid inconvenience to working journalists.“According to a communication issued by Special Commissioner Ch. Priyanka of the Information and Public Relations (I&PR) Department, the current accreditation cards are set to expire on December 31, 2025. The extension has been granted as the department is in the process of issuing a fresh notification inviting applications for new accreditation cards through an online system.“The government stated that the extension is a temporary measure to ensure uninterrupted access and recognition for journalists until the new accreditation process is completed.“District Collectors and District Media Accreditation Committee

“According to a communication issued by Special Commissioner Ch. Priyanka of the Information and Public Relations (I&PR) Department, the current accreditation cards are set to expire on December 31, 2025

(DMAC) Chairpersons have been requested to extend the validity of existing district-level accreditation cards accordingly.“The order follows instructions issued by the Special Secretary to the Government and has been communicated to the Chairman of the Telangana State Media Academy, Regional Joint Directors of Multi Zones I and II, and all District Public Relations Officers (DPROs) for necessary action.

Sanath Nagar constituency Turned into a Hub of Problems: Marri Shashidhar reddy

Congress Government Showing Step-Motherly Attitude by Not Allocating funds.

MLA Talasani Srinivas Yadav Has Neglected Sanathnagar constituency

“Indian Chronicle, Secunderabad, December 30:“Former Minister and BJP National Executive Member Marri Shashidhar Reddy alleged that the Sanathnagar Assembly constituency has turned into a hub of civic problems due to neglect. On Tuesday, he toured the Padmarao Nagar area in Bansilalpet Division along with BJP party leaders. “Local residents had been suffering for the past several months due to a severe drainage leakage issue on the road behind Gandhi Hospital. After the problem was brought to his notice recently, Marri Shashidhar Reddy immediately responded and, along with local BJP leaders, inspected the overflowing sewage water from in front of the KFC Mall on Padmarao Nagar main road up to the rear side of Gandhi Hospital. “He spoke to officials of the Water Board over the phone and questioned them about the continuous sewage overflow. He warned that if immediate steps were not taken to resolve the issue, protest programmes would be launched in front of the Water Board office, and the matter would be taken to the notice of higher officials and the government. Water Board officials informed him that plans were being prepared for a permanent solution to the problem. “Speaking on the occasion, Marri Shashidhar Reddy strongly criticised local MLA Talasani Srinivas Yadav, stating that he has completely ignored the problems of Sanathnagar constituency. He alleged that fearing denial of a ticket in the next elections, the MLA is spending his time at the BRS Bhavan indulging in praise of KTR, instead of addressing public issues. He also accused the Congress government of showing step-motherly treatment towards Sanathnagar by failing to allocate adequate funds for its welfare and development. “BJP leaders who participated in the programme included Division President Ramancha Mahesh, District Secretary Satyanarayana Goud, senior leaders K.M. Krishna, Anga Muthu Srinivas, Gunti Satyanarayana, N. Chandrapal Reddy, Rajeev Deshpande, M. Anita, Gundu Raghuram, Nainish Srikanth Chary, B. Vikas, K. Naresh, Pitla Srinivas, Parshi Paramesh, Bojja Nursing Rao and others.

“Celebrate New Year Peacefully, Police Appeal to Public

Drunk-and-Drive Checks from December 31 Evening: SP Nitika Pant

“No Permission for DJs During New Year Celebrations, Police Clarify

Taj Khan, Kaghznagar, December 30 (Indian Chronicle)“District Superintendent of Police Nitika Pant has appealed to the public to celebrate the New Year peacefully across the district. She announced that special drunk-and-drive checks will be conducted district-wide from the evening of December 31 as part of heightened security arrangements. “The SP warned that vehicles driven under the influence of alcohol will be seized, and strict legal action will be taken against offenders. She further stated that triple riding, wrong-side driving, rash driving, speed racing, and other traffic violations are illegal and will attract stringent penalties. “She made it clear that if minors are found driving vehicles, cases will be registered not only against them but also against their parents. Acts such as cake cutting on roads, bursting fire-crackers in public places, and organizing bike races have been declared offences under the law, and violators will face strict action. “No DJ Permission, Public Events Need Prior Approval“SP Nitika Pant categorically stated that DJ systems will not be permitted under any circumstances during New Year celebrations. She warned against organizing public programmes, rallies, meetings, gatherings, or events without prior police permission. For conducting programmes using sound boxes or microphone systems, mandatory police approval is required. “She also informed that Section 30 of the Police Act is currently in force across the district. “Action Against Public Nuisance and Cyber Frauds“The SP said that legal action will also be taken against those consuming alcohol in public places and causing inconvenience to others. She emphasized that the district police have put in place robust measures to maintain law and order. “Cautioning the public about cyber threats, she warned that cybercriminals may circulate fake links in the name of New Year greetings, and urged citizens to remain vigilant. “Appealing particularly to youth and the general public, SP

Nitika Pant called upon everyone to follow police guidelines and celebrate the New Year responsibly, without causing inconvenience to others.

Ramagundam Police Commissionerate Extends New Year Greetings Announces Stringent Safety Measures.

“P.S.ASHOKAN”KARIMNGAR BUREAU.“Ramagundam, December 30, 2025:“The Ramagundam Police Commissionerate has extended warm New Year greetings to all citizens within its jurisdiction. Issuing a press statement, Police Commissioner Amber Kishore Jha appealed to the public to celebrate the New Year with joy, responsibility, and strict adherence to the law.“Emphasising the message “Do not destroy your future for momentary pleasure,” the Commissioner urged citizens to celebrate happily but within the legal framework.“Special Drunken Drive Enforcement“As part of New Year safety measures, a special drunken driving drive will be conducted from 10.00 pm on December 31 across the Ramagundam Police Commissionerate limits. Persons found driving under the influence of alcohol will be booked, vehicles will be seized, and bind-over proceedings will be initiated. Strict legal action, including fines, cancellation of driving licences, and prosecution, will be taken against offenders.“Appeal to the Public“Residents of Peddapalli district and Mancherial district were advised to celebrate New Year festivities peacefully and responsibly, without causing inconvenience or harm to others. The Commissioner stressed the importance of avoiding risky behaviour and ensuring the safety of oneself and others.“Extensive Security and Monitoring“To prevent untoward incidents, intensive patrolling will be carried out with the support of local police, traffic police, She Teams, plain-clothes squads, and Special Branch personnel. Special focus will be laid on preventing illegal gatherings, public consumption of alcohol, harassment of women, and other unlawful activities.“Restrictions and Guidelines“New Year celebrations must conclude before 12.30 am.“Organisers of cultural programmes must obtain prior police permission.“Obscene dances are strictly prohibited.“Installation of CCTV cameras and deployment of security personnel at event venues are mandatory.“Public inconvenience caused by unauthorised celebrations will invite stringent action.“Use of DJ systems, orchestras, loudspeakers, and fireworks is strictly banned.“Liquor shops, wine shops, bars, and restaurants must strictly adhere to government-approved timings.“Traffic and Youth Advisory“Triple riding, rash driving, wrong-route driving, and riding without helmets will attract strict legal action. The Commissioner warned that criminal cases registered against youth could adversely affect future prospects, including government employment and foreign visas. Parents were urged to closely monitor their children, and youngsters were advised to stay away from alcohol and reckless behaviour.“Zero Tolerance Towards Drugs“The police will adopt a zero-tolerance policy towards the sale or consumption of banned drugs, ganja, and other narcotic substances during the New Year period.“The Police Commissioner appealed to citizens to respect the law, cooperate with the police, and celebrate the New Year peacefully, safely, and lawfully, preferably with family at home.““Your Safety – Passengers’ Safety: A Collective Responsibility“Awareness Programme for Auto Drivers“In a separate initiative aimed at preventing road accidents and promoting traffic discipline, Indrasena Reddy, Inspector of Godavarikhani I Town Police Station, conducted an awareness programme for auto drivers.“During the programme, auto drivers were educated on:“Strict adherence to traffic rules“Safe and responsible driving practices“The dangers of drunken driving“Importance of valid documents such as driving licence, insurance, fitness certificate, and pollution certificate““Addressing the gathering, the Inspector stated that auto drivers play a crucial role in ensuring passenger safety and that responsible driving can prevent numerous road accidents. He advised drivers to place photographs of their family members inside their vehicles, noting that such reminders help drivers act responsibly and avoid mistakes that could jeopardise their families’ future.“He cautioned that even a minor lapse could result in devastating consequences for families and urged drivers to refrain from violations. Drivers were also requested to promptly inform the police about any suspicious activities. The Inspector observed that the misconduct of a few drivers tarnishes the reputation of the entire community and warned that strict legal action would be taken against violators.“He further clarified that insurance benefits are applicable only when the driver holds a valid licence and stressed the need to keep all mandatory documents updated at all times.

Collector's Orders On Public Complaints: Immediate Action To Wankidi MPDO

“““Indian Chronicle” kumram bheem, Asifabad, District Report, Jade Srinivas. December 30. “The district authorities responded to the complaint filed by Durgam Tirupati at the Public Grievances Department of the Komuram Bheem Asifabad District Collectorate. Additional Collector Deepak Tiwari called up the Wankidi Mandal MPDO and ordered him to immediately stop the work related to the controversial issue. He also directed him to submit a full report within two days. The complainant expressed satisfaction with the immediate response of the Durgam Tirupati officials.

Free Medical Camp organised by Faustina Foundation

Indian Chronicle, Secunderabad, December 30 :

Janahitha Seva Trust, Faustina Foundation organised a Free Medical Camp in association with KIMS Foundation & Research Centre on Tuesday 30th December 2025 at Moosa Nagar Community Hall, Chadarghat, Hyderabad. The camp was inaugurated by Faustina Foundation National Chair Person Dr. K. Lourdu Jyothi and Janahitha Seva Trust, Managing Trustee S. Narsimha Murthy.“In this Camp General Physician, Gynaecology, Orthopaedic, Pediatrics, Doctors from KIMS HOSPITAL examined 205 persons and given Medicines to all. Blood Pressure, Sugar Levels checked to all. Hemoglobin in Blood tested for 90 women by Bharath Vikas Parishad and Iron and Folic acid Medicines given to Anaemic persons. Physiotherapist M. Srinivas showed Relief Exercises to Body Pains patients. “Faustina Foundation Director P. Jagadish Kumar and Finance Director Dr. Ch. Kala along with Hail Tata Mani Charitable Trust volunteers participated.

108,102 Ambulance Services For Devotees During Jangu Bhai Jatara

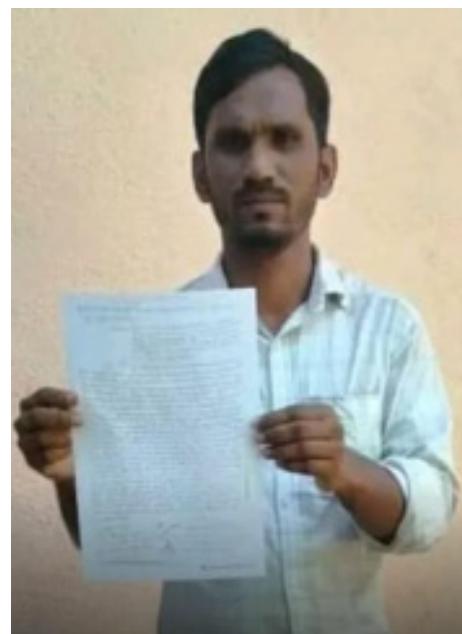

““Indian Chronicle” kumram bheem, Asifabad, District Report, Jade Srinivas. December, 30. “As per the instructions of the District Collector of Komuram Bheem Asifabad and the District Medical and Health Officer, special medical arrangements have been made for the devotees during the ongoing Jangu Bhai Jatara at Parandoli in Kerameri mandal. On Tuesday, one 108 and one 102 ambulance were made available to provide emergency medical services to the devotees who came to the Jatara. District 108 Manager Mukul Naresh Yadav monitored these services and gave instructions to the staff. The devotees expressed satisfaction with these advance medical arrangements.” [7:29 PM, 12/30/2025] +91 99485 55073: End..

Complaint To The Collector For Action Against The Officials Who Granted Land And Permission In The Court Dispute

““Indian Chronicle” kumram bheem, Asifabad, District Report, Jade Srinivas. December, 30. “Landowner Durgam Tirupati has complained to the District Collector that illegal construction is being carried out on land that is in court dispute in Wankidi mandal of Asifabad district.

He alleged that the authorities are not taking action even though construction is being carried out on his land without permission, and that it is against the rules for gram panchayat officials to issue construction permits for land that is in court dispute.

Akshama has requested the Collector to stop the construction and take strict action against the officials who gave the permits.

Nut Prevention Program To Protect Livestock Health In Sarandi

““Indian Chronicle” kumram bheem, Asifabad, District Report, Jade Srinivas. December, 30. “Wankidi: A flea prevention program was organized on Tuesday in Sarandi Gram Panchayat to protect the health of livestock. The program was undertaken with the aim of preventing diseases caused by fleas in the village and protecting the livestock. Sarpanch Moharle Bapuji said that the health of livestock is key to the economic development of farmers and suggested that flea prevention drugs be administered to every animal. While Karthik and Poshannal created awareness, Veterinary Department staff Raja and Vinod explained the importance of precautions, use of drugs and hygiene. Farmers attended in large numbers and cooperated with the program. The villagers thanked the Gram Panchayat and Veterinary Department staff.

Uppal Corporator Rajitha Parameshwar Reddy Offers Divine Darshan on Vaikuntha Ekadashi

““KISHORE VADDEPALLI, Uppal, December 30 (Indian Chronicle): “On the auspicious occasion of Sri “Vaikuntha Ekadashi, Uppal Corporator Rajitha Parameshwar Reddy visited the Hanuman Temple at Ganesh Nagar, Uppal, and the Lakshmi Narasimha Swamy Temple at Beerappagadda, where she offered special prayers and had divine darshan of the presiding deities. “On this holy day, she prayed for the people to be blessed with safety, good health, happiness, and prosperity. She also expressed her wish that the divine blessings of Lord Venkateswara shower upon all the residents of Uppal. “Several local leaders and supporters, including Chen Reddy, Raghupathi Reddy, Kondra Hanumanth, Satyapal Reddy, Salla Prabhakar Reddy, and Prem Goud, participated in the programme.

Cantonment Board elections should be conducted

Secunderabad Cantonment. December 30 (Indian Chronicle): "Former members of the Cantonment Board, BRS leaders, demanded that the elections to the Cantonment Board should be held. Rakesh Mittal, Joint Secretary, Ministry of Defense (Land & Works), as part of the special investigation, came to the Secunderabad Cantonment Board on Tuesday. In this sequence, the former Vice President of the Board, Jakkulu Maheshwar Reddy, former members of the Cantonment Board, Najili Kiran, K. Pandhi Yadav, P. Shyam Kumar J. Loknath handed over the petition to Rakesh Mittal, Maheshwar Reddy said that since 2020, since the Cantonment Board elections have not been held, due to lack of proper governance and lack of development, people are facing restrictions and also demanded immediate release of pending service charges of about Rs 1,000 crore due from the Central Government.

BJP Leaders Pay Courtesy Call on Uppal Zonal Commissioner Radhika Gupta

KISHORE VADDEPALLI Uppal, December 30 (Indian Chronicle): "BJP leaders from Chiluka Nagar paid a courtesy visit to the newly appointed Uppal Zonal Commissioner, Ms. Radhika Gupta, as part of the Greater Hyderabad expansion. They felicitated her by presenting a bouquet and conveyed their best wishes. Uppal Assembly Convener Devasani Balachander, former councillor Srinivas Sharma, Palvancha Vittal, Sangi Swamy Yadav, Ramaraju Yadav, Orsu Shekhar, Shameerpet Chandraiah, Dasari Yadagiri, Muthyala Krishna Reddy, Rajesh, Vasu, Mohan, and several other BJP leaders participated in the programme.

Registration And License Fair District Food Inspection Officer Vinod Kumar

"Indian Chronicle" kumram bheem, Asifabad, District Report, Jade Srinivas. December, 30 "Asifabad On the 30th of this month, under the direction of the State Food Safety Commissioner, a FSSAI registration and license fair was organized for food business operators in the district under the leadership of Food Safety Officer Mahesh at the Kagaz Nagar Municipal Office in the district. District Food Inspection Officer Vinod Kumar said in a statement that according to the FSSAI Act, every food trader should have a license / registration, and those who do not have one will be fined / imprisoned according to the law. He said that for license / registration, Aadhaar card, PAN card, GST, trade license, rental agreement should be brought. For other details, they can be contacted on 7981904028, 6300878052, he said, and business operators in the district should take advantage of this opportunity.

Full Measures To Avoid Urea Shortage In The District: Collector Venkatesh Dhotre

"Indian Chronicle" kumram bheem, Asifabad, District Report, Jade Srinivas. December, 30 "is a wave of urea, which is required for agricultural cultivation in Asifabad district, District Collector Venkatesh Dhotre said in a statement on Monday that full measures will be taken to ensure that there is no shortage of urea for agricultural cultivation. He said that 3,965 metric tons of urea in 88,120 bags are required for the cultivation area of ??50,216 acres in the 2025-26 Yason season, while 4,94 metric tons of urea in 90,968 bags are available. He said that there is a surplus of urea in dealers, co-operative societies and Markfed godowns in the district, and that urea is being provided to farmers every day through urea distribution centers in the district according to the cultivation, and the urea distribution process will continue from 6 am every day. He said that for the convenience of farmers, shamianas and drinking water facilities should be provided at the sales centers, and that steps are being taken in coordination with the authorities to set up at least 3 counters in each sales center so that the farmers do not face any difficulties. He said that the authorities should take steps to provide urea to the farmers through this pass mission based on the passbooks of the landowners.

Irukulla Manga Appointed As Asifabad AMC Chairperson Government Issues Orders Appointing Gajula Ravinder As Vice Chairman

"Indian Chronicle" kumram bheem, Asifabad, District Report, Jade Srinivas. December, 30 "Asifabad The Telangana government on Monday issued orders appointing a new governing body for the Asifabad Agricultural Market Committee. Irukulla Manga has been selected as the chairperson of the Asifabad Market Committee. Gajula Ravinder has also been appointed as the vice-chairman. The committee, which consists of a total of 18 members, includes Naitham Ramachander, Gajula Jakkaiyah, Morle Vishwanath, Tekam Kamala, Vermula Hemalatha, Bongu Narsingarao, Pitla Anand Rao, Maruthi Vairagade, Mohammed Sajid Ahmed, Sunday Shankar, Pilluri Karthik, Simrala Dilip are the members. Along with them, Tiriyani. PACS President, District Marketing Officer, Assistant Director of Agriculture Department, Asifabad Municipality Special Officer will act as members by virtue of their position. This committee will continue in office for two years. It will work to solve the problems of farmers. Locals are expressing joy over the BC woman getting this opportunity.

Vairagade, Anand Rao's Home.. A Harvest Of Medals

““Indian Chronicle” kumram bheem, Asifabad, District Report, Jade Srinivas. December 30 “The family of veteran sportsman and auto driver Vairagade Anand Rao, who hails from Buruguda village in Pabad mandal, is reaping the harvest of medals at the state and national levels. In the recent state competitions, Anand Rao, along with his wife Shakuntala and daughter Deepthi, won gold and silver medals in their respective categories. In the Telangana State Championship-2025 competitions organized by the Master Rental Tix Association in Karinagar on the 28th of this month, he won in the above 55 years category. “Anand Rao, who participated, won the gold medal by standing first in the 5 km. run. He won the silver medal by standing second in the 10 km. run. He qualified for the national level competitions to be held in Rajasthan in the last week of January. Anand Rao's wife Shakuntala also participated in this competition and stood first in the 10 km. walk and stood second in the 5 km. walk and won the silver medal. Anand Rao's daughter Deepthi won the first medal in the competitions. They participated in the recently held state-level yoga competition in Mancherial and came second. District SP Nitika Pant specially congratulated the medal-winning Anand Rao, Shakuntala and Deepthi in her office.

Instead of bringing bouquets and shawls to convey New Year's greetings, please bring notebooks, pens, and pencils that will be useful for underprivileged students

Yadadri Bhuvanagiri District Collector Hanumantha Rao

“(Mandava Srisailam, Yadadri Bhuvanagiri District Bureau, Indian Chronicle, December 30):- District Collector Hanumantha Rao appealed to those coming to the Collector's office to convey New Year's greetings not to bring bouquets, flower arrangements, or shawls. He said that while it is customary for officials, public representatives, and the general public to offer bouquets, shawls, and flower arrangements to convey New Year's wishes, instead, they should bring notebooks, pens, pencils, blankets, and other materials that will be useful for poor students. The Collector stated that this would help support underprivileged students, and these items would be distributed to the students soon. He added that providing educational materials to poor children would be beneficial for their studies, and providing blankets during the cold season would help protect their health.

Vaikuntha Ekadashi Celebrated with Uttar Dwaram Darshan at Sri Bala Anjaneya Swamy 2026 New Year Temple Calendar Released;

Irumudi Blankets Distributed to Ayyappa Swamis

““Indian Chronicle, Secunderabad, December 30 :“Vaikuntha Ekadashi was observed with religious fervour at the Sri Bala Anjaneya Swamy Temple, where Lord Sri Bala Anjaneya Swamy is worshipped along with Sri Sai Baba. On this auspicious occasion, devotees were given the sacred Uttar Dwaram Darshan, which holds special spiritual significance. As part of the celebrations, the 2026 New Year Temple Calendar was formally unveiled by the Temple Chairman, Sri Naguluri Sai Baba. The calendar release marked an important highlight of the event. On the same occasion, Irumudi blankets were distributed to Ayyappa Swamis as a gesture of devotion and service. Temple committee members, Ayyappa Swamis and a large number of devotees participated in the programme, contributing to the spiritual ambience of the Vaikuntha Ekadashi celebrations.

Ward-wise mapping process must be carried out meticulously: State Election Commissioner Rani Kumudini

(Mandava Srisailam... Yadadri Bhuvanagiri District Bureau... Indian Chronicle... December 30): State Election Commissioner Rani Kumudini said that the ward-wise voter mapping process in the municipalities of the state should be carried out meticulously. On Tuesday, she held a review meeting on the voter mapping process with Additional Collectors, Municipal Commissioners, and election department officials of all districts via video conference from Hyderabad, along with other election officials. Speaking on the occasion, the State Election Commissioner stated that the voter mapping process in the wards under the municipalities should be carried out rigorously. She said that the voter list provided by the Election Commission of India has been made available on the TE Poll portal, and that the voter list will be available polling station-wise for each assembly constituency. She instructed Municipal Commissioners to obtain login credentials with their details and map the municipal voters ward-wise. She also directed them to undertake polling station mapping within the municipal limits and to resolve any doubts in this process through the concerned nodal officer. Additional Collector of Local Bodies Bhaskara Rao, Municipal Commissioners, and other concerned officials participated in this program.

Darshan Through Uttar Dwaram on Vaikuntha Ekadashi Brings Great Merit: Talasani Srinivas Yadav

“Indian Chronicle, Secunderabad, December 30 :“Former Minister and Sanathnagar MLA Talasani Srinivas Yadav stated that devotees attain immense spiritual merit by having darshan of Lord Venkateswara through the sacred Uttar Dwaram on the auspicious occasion of Vaikuntha Ekadashi. On Tuesday, marking Vaikuntha Ekadashi, the MLA visited the Sri Kalyana Venkateswara Swamy Temple at Namalagundu in Secunderabad. He had darshan of the Lord through the Uttar Dwaram and participated in special prayers conducted on the occasion. After the rituals, Temple Chairman Nomula Prakash felicitated MLA Talasani Srinivas Yadav. Speaking on the occasion, the MLA noted that devotees had gathered in large numbers at temples from the early hours of the morning to seek the blessings of the Lord. He appreciated Chairman Nomula Prakash and other temple committee members for making special arrangements that enabled devotees—who are unable to visit Tirupati and have darshan of Lord Venkateswara, revered as the living deity of the Kali Yuga—to experience a similar spiritual atmosphere here. Students dressed in various traditional and devotional costumes added special attraction to the celebrations. Corporator Samala Hema, Lashkar District Sadhana Samithi President Gurram Pawan Kumar Goud, General Secretary Sadam Balaraj Yadav, and leaders Shailender, Karate Raju, Balaji Rajesh, Baburao, Mallikharjun and others accompanied the MLA.