Junior Assistant Accused of Corruption; Officials Allegedly Remain Silent

“Indian Chronicle (Taj Khan), February 16, “Rebbena Revenue Office Under Scanner“Rebbena: Allegations of serious irregularities have surfaced at the Rebbena Tahsildar Office after the Asifabad District Collector conducted a surprise inspection. During the visit, a Junior Assistant was reportedly found sitting idly at his desk, drawing criticism from local residents. “According to sources, the Junior Assistant has been unable to efficiently discharge basic office responsibilities. Locals allege that he struggles with fundamental tasks such as reading files, drafting documents, and forwarding official papers, raising concerns over administrative functioning. “Background and Appointment“The Junior Assistant, identified as Durgam Janayya, is a native of Kishtapur village. Following his father’s demise, he was reportedly appointed as a Village Revenue Assistant (VRA) on compassionate grounds and joined duties at the Rebbena MRO office. It is learnt that he later completed his Intermediate and Degree through open schooling. “Subsequently, as part of the Telangana government’s regularisation policy for long-serving VRAs based on educational qualifications, he was appointed as a Junior Assistant in the same office. “Serious Allegations Raised“However, local residents allege that despite holding the post of Junior Assistant, he lacks the necessary skills to manage official duties effectively. Further accusations suggest that he has been working in the same office for an extended period without transfer, allegedly engaging in corrupt practices. “A young farmer and RTI activist, Srinivas, has reportedly submitted a detailed complaint to the Asifabad District Collector, attaching documentary evidence. The complaint alleges that: “• The Junior Assistant possesses a ration card irregularly. “• He has been drawing income certificates improperly. “• He has been working in the same office for many years without transfer. “• He allegedly secured ownership (patta) of 3.00 acres of government land in Kishtapur village. “It is further stated that complaints were raised during the weekly public grievance redressal meetings held every Monday. However, when enquired about the status of the complaint at the Collector’s office, officials reportedly stated that the matter is “under process.” Despite four months having passed, no action has been taken so far, complainants allege. “Public Demand for Immediate Action“Residents have accused higher authorities of remaining inactive and have demanded that officials wake up to the issue and initiate swift action against the concerned Junior Assistant.

Will lead Bhuvanagiri constituency on the path of development:- Bhuvanagiri MLA Kumbham Anil Kumar Reddy

Will make Bhuvanagiri Municipality an ideal municipality...

Thangallapalli Srivani Ravikumar as the new chairman of Bhuvanagiri Municipality

“(Mandava Srisailam..Yadadri Bhuvanagiri District Bureau... Indian Chronicle... February 16):- Bhuvanagiri MLA Kumbham Anil Kumar Reddy said that it is very gratifying that the people are attracted to the state development and welfare programs being carried out under the auspices of the people's government under the leadership of Telangana State Chief Minister Revanth Reddy and that they were elected with a huge majority in the Bhuvanagiri Municipal Elections. On Monday, the oath-taking ceremony of the council executive committee was held at the Bhuvanagiri Municipal Office, and the unanimous election of the new chairman of Bhuvanagiri Municipality, Thangallapalli Srivani Ravikumar, and the vice-chairman, Pothamsetty Manjula Venkateswarlu, was the chief guest. Later, the victory rally of the new chairman of Bhuvanagiri Municipality, Thangallapalli Srivani Ravikumar, and the vice-chairman, Pothamsetty Manjula Venkateswarlu was organized from the Bhuvanagiri Municipal Office to the old bus stand. After this victory rally, Bhuvanagiri MLA Kumbha Anil addressed the people at RB Nagar Chowrasta and said that the people of Bhuvanagiri will never forget the history of the last 40 years, by uprooting other parties and electing him as the legislator of the Bhuvanagiri constituency Congress Party. He said that in the two and a half years since he was elected, a lot of development has been done in the Bhuvanagiri constituency with about 80 crore rupees for the development of the towns. He said that the state Chief Minister Revanth Reddy will work as per the promises made to the people and that this is not a government of words like the BRS party, but a government of deeds of the Congress party. He said that he was very happy that he got an absolute majority in all the municipalities in his constituency. He said that the Congress party got 22 seats in the Bhuvanagiri municipality and that five other independent candidates are members of their party, and that he was happy to get such a majority. In the same vein, the state Chief Minister Revanth Reddy is giving priority to BC women, and as part of this, he said that the unanimous election of Thangallapalli Srivani Ravikumar, a poor child belonging to the OBC Vishwakarma caste, as the municipal chairman and her daughter Shetty Manjula Venkateswar as the vice chairman is commendable. He said that the people and the leadership will recognize those who have worked for the party, and everyone should exercise restraint. He said that the words of an OC woman at the municipal oath-taking ceremony had caused them trouble, and that the leadership would give such people another chance. He suggested that everyone should be patient and contribute to the development of Bhuvanagiri Municipal Town. PCC General Secretary Pramod Kumar said that he would provide his full support to the newly elected municipal administration. DCC Delegate Tangallapalli Ravikumar said that he had served the Congress party a lot and that he was very grateful to the people of Bhuvanagiri town for recognizing him and giving his wife Srivani the opportunity to be the municipal chairman. The newly elected Bhuvanagiri Municipal Chairman, Tangallapalli Srivani Ravikumar, said that she is very happy that the Congress party has recognized the services rendered by her husband Ravikumar and given her the opportunity to be the Municipal Chairman. She said that no matter what, she will always provide her best help and support for the development of the people of Bhuvanagiri town, and if the people have any problems, they just need to call her. She will immediately come to your doorstep and work to solve the problems. Bhuvanagiri MLA Kummam Anil Kumar Reddy said that with the support of Minister Komatireddy and the government's Vippu Beerla Ilayya, they will bring more funds and make Bhuvanagiri town an ideal municipality. Municipal Vice Chairman Pothamsetty Manjula Venkateswarlu said that she will participate in the development of Bonagiri Municipality and serve the public, and that she will participate in public service as long as she has the support of the people. Fans, friends, Congress party leaders, and other leaders participated in these triumphs, and the city of Bhuvanagiri was filled with a large-scale celebration of drums and fireworks.

Thangallapalli Srivani Ravikumar as Bhuvanagiri Municipal Chairperson.. Pothamsetty Manjula Venkateswarlu as Vice Chairman unanimously elected

We will take Bhuvanagiri Municipality on the path of development.. Just make a phone call.. We will be at your doorstep.
..Thangallapalli Srivani Ravikumar

“(Mandava Srisailam..Yadadri Bhuvanagiri District Bureau... Indian Chronicle... February 16):- Tangallapalli Srivani Ravikumar as Bhuvanagiri Municipal Chairperson and Pothamsetty Manjula Venkateswarlu as Municipal Vice Chairman were unanimously elected, announced the Election Officer, Yadadri Bhuvanagiri District Additional Collector Bhaskar Rao. As per the time fixed by the government officials, 35 municipal councilors were present at the Bhuvanagiri Municipal Office at 11 am on Monday. First, the Election Officer administered the oath to all the newly elected councilors. Later, the ruling Congress Party Bhuvanagiri MLA Kumbham Anil Kumar Reddy handed over the seal covers of the chairman and vice chairman to the Election Officer Bhaskara Rao. On this occasion, the Election Officer first issued the documents for the election of the municipal chairman and vice chairman as per the government rules. As per the instructions issued by the Election Officer, the names of the chairman and vice chairman were proposed and signed in these documents. As a result, 22 ruling party councilors unanimously passed a resolution and proposed the name of Thangallapalli Srivani Ravikumar as the municipal chairman and Pothamsetty Manjula Venkateswarlu as the vice chairman. The Election Officer Bhaskara Rao suggested that two people be nominated for the election of the Chairman, and the Councilors Polishetty Anil and Paccharla Jagan proposed it. With this, the name of Tangallapalli Srivani Ravi Kumar was suggested to be nominated as the Chairman of Bonagiri Municipal Corporation, and the name of the Vice Chairman was proposed by the two Councilors, and Bingi Naresh and Nazia Begum nominated the name of Pothamsetty Manjula Venkateswarlu as the Vice Chairman, and the Election Officer Bhaskara Rao announced that both of them were unanimously elected. On this occasion, 33 Councilors expressed their congratulations with their hands (claps). Later, the Election Officer Bhaskara Rao presented certificates to both of them and presented them with flower plants.”

Kosamerupu :- All the councilors present in the house were speechless when local MLA Kumbh Anil Kumar Reddy and the concerned election officer questioned the OC candidate, the only woman, Ganji Srivani Ganesh Reddy, from Bommaypalli 11th ward, saying that she was not given the post of municipal chairman, that she was not local but non-local, and that it was reasonable to hand over the post to BCs with BC cards. Ganji Srivani Ganesh Reddy had recently joined the Congress party, that there were many seniors in the Congress party, and according to the official government release, many councilors were confused that whoever they nominated would become the chairman and vice chairman. Many councilors felt that even though they have 34 councilors belonging to the weaker sections, it is not appropriate to blame an OC, a woman from the Reddy caste, and the chairperson from the BC caste, Thangallapalla Srivani Ravikumar. If one chairperson is blamed, it is as if we are all being blamed, and we should not make such mistakes again. “I will continuously work for the development of the people:- Bhuvanagiri Municipal new chairman Thangallapalla Srivani Ravikumar “I will continuously provide my best help and support for the development of the people. I am very grateful for the unanimous election of me as the municipal chairman with the support of my fellow councilors, said the new chairman of Bhuvanagiri Municipal, Thangallapalla Srivani Ravikumar. He said that he would like to convey his best wishes to the joint district minister Komatireddy Venkata Reddy, government minister Vippu Beerla Ilayya, Bhuvanagiri MLA Kumbham Anil Kumar Reddy, fellow councilors, town people and fans who worked hard for his election. Similarly, Bhuvanagiri Municipal Chairman Thangallapalli Srivani Ravikumar said that he will always provide his best support and assistance for the development of Bhuvanagiri town, following in their footsteps and following their suggestions. Speaking on the occasion, Pothamsetty Manjula Venkateswarlu, who was elected as the Municipal Vice Chairman, said that she wished all the best to her fellow councilors who worked for her election and appointment. Similarly, she will continue to participate in the development of the Bhuvanagiri Municipal Town and work for the development of the town. She thanked the joint district minister MLA Komatireddy Venkata Reddy, government minister Vippu Beerlu Ilayya, local MLA Kumbham Anil Kumar Reddy, her fellow councilors, the people of the town, and her fans for their efforts in her election.
