

Everyone Must Participate in Making the SIR Process a Success: MLA Nayini Rajender Reddy “Hanamkonda, July 25 (Indian Chronicle): Warangal West MLA Nayini Rajender Reddy called upon everyone to actively participate in making the Special Intensive Revision (SIR) process a success.” “An awareness seminar on the Special Intensive Revision (SIR) was organized on Saturday at the Journalism Seminar Hall of Kakatiya University, Hanamkonda, under the leadership of Prof. Sangani Malleshwar, Head of the Department of Journalism and State President of the Phule Ashaya Sadhana Samithi (PASS).” “Warangal West MLA Nayini Rajender Reddy attended the programme as the Chief Guest, while Telugu Academy Chairman Kurapati Venkata Narayana was the Special Guest. Professors, faculty members, research scholars, and students participated in the event.” “Addressing the gathering, MLA Nayini Rajender Reddy said that while the SIR process is progressing rapidly in rural areas, there is a greater need to create awareness in urban areas. He stated that 65.5 percent of the registration process in his constituency has been completed so far and that necessary measures have been taken to ensure that 244 Booth Level Agents (BLAs) and Booth Level Officers (BLOs) work in coordination every day.” “He said that special assistance centres have been established at 70 ration shops across the constituency, where trained staff are helping people complete the voter registration process. He added that around 48,000 voters are yet to complete their registration, with each polling booth having approximately 200 to 800 eligible voters still to be enrolled.” “The MLA emphasized that the right to vote is one of the most valuable rights in a democracy and urged every eligible citizen to register as a voter. He also appealed to the students and intellectuals of Kakatiya University to take the lead in creating awareness among the public.” “He clarified that the SIR is not a new process and that similar special revision programmes for electoral rolls had been conducted in the past. He urged people to view the exercise as a democratic process rather than through a political lens.” “Referring to the allegations made against him, the MLA said that creating unnecessary obstacles to development works ultimately harms the public. He requested people, especially students and intellectuals, to examine the facts carefully before believing baseless allegations.” “He further stated that only a few days remain for the completion of the SIR registration process and appealed to everyone to spread awareness among their family members, relatives, and acquaintances to ensure that all eligible voters complete their registration.” “Representatives of the Phule Ashaya Sadhana Samithi (PASS), university faculty members, and students were also present at the programme.

They also met his parents, expressed their solidarity, and assured them of their support. “Speaking on the occasion, the leaders said they would take up the matter with the government and police authorities to ensure that strict legal action is taken against those responsible for the attack. They also stated that the incident would be brought to the attention of TPCC SC Department Chairman and Manakondur MLA, Dr. Kavvampalli Satyanarayana. The TPCC SC Department leaders further emphasized that effective measures should be taken to prevent such attacks on members of the Scheduled Castes in the future and assured the victim's family of their continued support in every possible way.

Government's goal is to provide quality education, delicious food and sports facilities to students: Yadadri Bhuvanagiri District Collector Anurag Jayanti “(Yadadri Bhuvanagiri District Bureau.. Indian Chronicle.. July 25):- The goal is to provide quality education, delicious food and sports facilities to students, said District Collector Anurag Jayanti. “On Saturday, District Collector Anurag Jayanti inspected Mahatma Jyotiba Phule Residential School, College and Telangana Social Welfare Residential Junior College in Bibinagar mandal center. On this occasion, the District Collector personally inspected the midday meal being served to students in the school and college. He directly asked the students whether they were being served quality and delicious food as per the menu or not. He instructed the concerned officials to pay special attention to the quality and hygiene of the food items. “Later, the vegetables, goods, cooking utensils and rooms in the college kitchen were inspected and whether the hygiene and sanitation standards were being followed properly. It was suggested that hygiene should be given top priority in the storage of food items and that there should be no negligence in protecting the health of the students. “The Collector spoke cordially to the students of the Social Welfare Residential Junior College. In addition to making sports equipment available as per the request of the students, he assured that steps would be taken to arrange necessary educational books and training facilities for the students preparing for competitive exams like JEE and NEET. He advised the students to show their talent in education and also actively participate in sports and develop a holistic personality. He advised them to study with discipline and perseverance and achieve high goals and bring a good name to the district. Tahsildar Shyam Sundar and concerned officials participated in this program.

BJP Sounds the Bugle for Municipal Elections; Saffron Flag Victory is the Goal: Sunil Bansal

“Warangal, July 25 (Indian Chronicle): With the upcoming municipal elections in view, the Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) held a preparatory meeting in Hyderabad on Saturday. BJP National General Secretary and Telangana State In-charge Sunil Bansal attended the meeting as the Chief Guest and provided strategic guidance to the party cadre. District President Ganta Ravi Kumar was also present. “Addressing the gathering, Sunil Bansal called upon every party worker to work collectively to ensure the BJP’s victory in the municipal elections. He urged party workers to take the welfare schemes implemented by the Central Government under the leadership of Prime Minister Narendra Modi to every booth and every household. “He advised party workers to stay connected with the people, understand their local issues, stand by them, and continuously fight for their welfare. He further directed party leaders and candidates to move forward with well-planned strategies, keeping victory in the upcoming elections as their sole objective. “Speaking on the occasion, District President Ganta Ravi Kumar said that the party would further strengthen its organisational structure at the booth level across the district in line with the guidance of the central leadership. He expressed confidence that BJP workers would reach out to the people, widely promote the party’s ideology and the Central Government’s welfare initiatives, and work unitedly to ensure the party’s victory and achieve a clean sweep in the municipal elections across the district.

Arrogance of Power Has Lost, Students' Unity Has Won: CPM Town Secretary, Councillor Hanamkonda Sridhar

“Narsampet, July 25 (Indian Chronicle): CPM Hanamkonda Town Secretary and Corporator Hanamkonda Sridhar said that the resignation of Union Education Minister Dharmendra Pradhan was the direct result of the united struggle waged by students across the country. He described it not merely as the resignation of an individual, but as a historic victory achieved through the students’ movement. “In a statement issued on Saturday, Sridhar said that the resignation clearly demonstrated the consequences of an Education Ministry failing to protect the future of students and instead playing with their lives. He criticized the Central Government for its failures in conducting examinations, alleged irregularities, negligence, and lack of accountability, stating that it ultimately had no option but to bow before the anger of the students. “He said that students had not demanded power or privileges, but only their rightful educational rights. However, instead of addressing their legitimate demands, the government adopted a repressive approach and ultimately suffered defeat before a democratic movement. Those who believed they could silence the voice of the people through arrogance of power received a strong reply from the united struggle of students, he added. “Sridhar stated that in a democracy, the people are the ultimate judges and that no one can suppress the voice of students. He said that Dharmendra Pradhan’s resignation stands as proof that when students unite and fight together, even Union Ministers can be forced to step down. “He dedicated this victory to every student in the country, stating that rights can be secured only through struggle. He said the development once again proved that the arrogance of those in power must bow before the unity of students, adding that struggles can shake governments and united movements can compel those in authority to surrender.

NEW ERA IN SCHOOL SAFETY – UNITED SCHOOLS PROTECTION FORCE B.VIJAYENDER REDDY

Awareness Seminar with Over 136 School Representatives Concludes Successfully

“UPPAL, JULY 25 (INDIAN CHRONICLE): An awareness seminar organized by the United Schools Protection Force (USPF) with the objective of ensuring the safety, security, and dignity of educational institutions concluded successfully, with the participation of more than 136 representatives from various schools. “Addressing the gathering, B. Vijayender Reddy, representative of the United Schools Protection Force, said that the organization’s primary mission is to safeguard schools across the state. He assured that the USPF would extend full support and assistance to any school facing challenges or security-related issues. “The seminar featured detailed discussions on several key issues affecting educational institutions, including protection from blackmail and harassment, awareness of the Right to Information (RTI) Act, preventing unauthorized entry into school premises, and strengthening coordination between school managements and the police department. “On the occasion, SI Madhu created awareness about the growing menace of drug abuse among students and the harmful effects of social media misuse. He advised school managements to remain vigilant and work closely with the police to ensure a safe and secure learning environment for students. “Speaking at the event, Venkateswara Rao highlighted the major challenges faced by schools and explained possible solutions. He assured that the police department would continue to extend its full cooperation in ensuring the safety and security of educational institutions. “The seminar concluded with a consensus that close coordination between school managements and the police department would help create a safe, disciplined, and harassment-free environment for students, teachers, and educational institutions.

Talasani Announces Lifetime Aid for Wrestlers, Provides Mats to 70 Wrestling Centres

“Hyderabad correspondent, July 25 (Indian Chronicle): Former Minister and Sanath Nagar MLA Talasani Srinivas Yadav on Saturday reaffirmed his commitment to promoting traditional wrestling by distributing wrestling mats to 70 gymnasiums (akhadas) across the city under the Talasani Trust at the Ameerpet Municipal Stadium. Addressing the gathering, he described wrestling as an ancient sport with a history spanning over 5,000 years and stressed the need to preserve and encourage the tradition. Announcing sustained support for budding wrestlers, Talasani said he would bear the cost of tracksuits, shoes and travel expenses for nearly 150 wrestlers who participate in national-level competitions every year. He noted that many young athletes continue to pursue the sport despite financial hardships and inadequate training infrastructure. To improve training conditions, the Trust supplied 10 wrestling mats each to 70 akhadas, enabling wrestlers to practise in safer and more comfortable surroundings. Talasani also assured that more initiatives for the development of gymnasiums and welfare of wrestlers would be undertaken in the future, adding that comprehensive government support would be extended if the BRS returns to power. Several donors and local BRS leaders attended the programme.

Farmers should be supported by providing irrigation water through Baswapuram project: BRS Party Senior State Leader Chintala Venkateswara Reddy

“(Yadadri Bhuvanagiri District Bureau.. Indian Chronicle.. July 25):- BRS Party Senior State Leader Chintala Venkateswara Reddy inspected the Kaleshwaram project in Baswapur village of Bhuvanagiri constituency. On this occasion, he said that earlier, during the then Congress Party Chief Minister YS Rajasekhara Reddy government, the same Baswapur project was implemented as a 0.8 TMC project under Ambedkar Pranahita Chevella Srujala Sravanti. After

2014, during the BRS Party leader former Chief Minister KCR government, the Kaleshwaram project was expanded to 11.39 TMC through lift irrigation. He said that the ayacut will cover 23,000 to 1,65,000 acres under this project. If you lift the water of Kaleshwaram through the pump house in this area, the entire area will become fertile. Due to the partisan actions of this Chief Minister, the entire Telangana will turn into a desert and there will be no water for drinking. He said that the underground water in this entire area is so thin that it will be a problem for small farmers. Revanth Reddy said that the partisan actions should be stopped, otherwise all the farmers will revolt, so the partisan actions should be stopped and water should be given to the farmers. Former PACS Chairman Nomula Parameswara Reddy, former and later Sarpanch Chandam Mallikarjuna, Singireddy Prabhakar Reddy, BRS district leaders Kuthadi Suresh, Vallapu Vijay, Pallepati Ravikumar (Kondal), Gummula Ganesh, Yata Ganesh, Nagaram Naresh, Maccha Shiva, and others were present at the event.

Historic Victory for Students' Struggle and Rahul Gandhi's Leadership: DCC President Inagala

“(Hanumakonda, July 25 (Indian Chronicle): In the wake of the resignation of Union Education Minister Dharmendra Pradhan, a grand "Vijay March" (Victory Rally) was organized on Saturday under the leadership of Hanumakonda District Congress Committee (DCC) President Inagala Venkatram Reddy, following the directions of AICC General Secretary K.C. Venugopal. The candlelight march commenced from the Mahatma Gandhi statue at Public Garden, Hanumakonda, and concluded at the Dr. B.R. Ambedkar statue. “Speaking on the occasion, Inagala Venkatram Reddy dedicated the Victory March to the students and youth who fought across the country. He said that this historic victory was made possible because of the courage, unity, and determination shown by the students. He stated that Congress leader and Leader of the Opposition in the Lok Sabha, Rahul Gandhi, consistently stood with the students and fought both inside and outside Parliament against irregularities in the education system. As a result of this sustained struggle, the Central Government was compelled to accept the resignation of Union Education Minister Dharmendra Pradhan, he said. “He described it as a historic moral victory for Rahul Gandhi's leadership and for the nationwide movement led by students. However, he asserted that the issue would not end with the resignation of a minister and that the Congress Party would continue its agitation until every student affected by the paper leak controversy receives complete justice. “The programme was attended by MLC Baswaraju Saraiah, MLAs Nayani Rajender Reddy and Revuri Prakash Reddy, TPCC members E.V. Srinivas Rao, Bhatti Srinivas Rao, Boddireddy Prabhakar Reddy, District Kisan Congress President Pingili Venkatram Reddy, Grain Market Committee Chairperson Puli Priyanka, Goda Devi, IYC National Secretary Sagarika Rao, district Congress leaders, Mahila Congress, Youth Congress, NSUI leaders, party workers, and a large number of supporters.

NIMS Cuts Brain Surgery Time to 1–2 Hours, Introduces Advanced Tremor Treatment

“(Hyderabad correspondent, July 25 (Indian Chronicle): The Nizam's Institute of Medical Sciences (NIMS) has achieved a major milestone in functional neurosurgery by reducing the duration of Deep Brain Stimulation (DBS) surgery from 5–6 hours to just 1–2 hours, significantly improving patient comfort and surgical efficiency. Led by Prof. Dr. Y. Vamsi Krishna, Head of the Department of Neurosurgery, the NIMS team has adopted advanced imaging, precision surgical planning and modern operative techniques, enabling selected patients with Parkinson's disease, Essential Tremor and Dystonia to undergo DBS under general anaesthesia, eliminating the need for prolonged awake brain surgery. Over the past two-and-a-half years, NIMS has successfully performed more than 200 DBS procedures, emerging as one of India's leading government centres for functional neurosurgery. The institute has also launched MRI-guided Radiofrequency Ablation for patients with medication-resistant tremors. The procedure accurately targets the Dentato-Rubro-Thalamic (DRT) pathway without requiring permanent implants. While the treatment costs nearly ₹5 lakh in private hospitals, eligible patients can receive it free of cost at NIMS through the Chief Minister's Relief Fund (CMRF). NIMS has also introduced Sacral Neuromodulation for neurogenic bladder disorders. NIMS Director Prof. Dr. Rahul Devaraj said the institute is committed to providing world-class neurological care in the public healthcare system. He congratulated the neurosurgery team led by Prof. Dr. Y. Vamsi Krishna, along with Dr. Sirisha Yarid and Dr. Vasundhara, for successfully implementing these advanced procedures.

Solar Resources Are Unlimited – Let Us Make the Best Use of Them: REDCO Vice Chairman & Managing Director Musharraf Faruqui, IAS“Officials Interact with Solar Rooftop and Solar Pump Set Users in Bonakal Mandal

“Khammam, July 25 indian Chronicle:““Under the guidance of Chief Minister

A. Revanth Reddy and Deputy Chief Minister Mallu Bhatti Vikramarka, the Telangana Government is moving forward with its vision of transforming the state into a "Solar Telangana."“As part of the prestigious 81 Model Solar Villages Programme, REDCO Vice Chairman & Managing Director Musharraf Faruqui, IAS, TGNPDCL Chairman & Managing Director Karnati Varun Reddy, IAS, and Khammam District Collector Divakar T.S., IAS, on Saturday inspected the ongoing works to develop Bonakal Mandal into a model solar mandal.“The officials visited Bonakal, Ravinutala, and Garlapadu villages to review the progress of solar installations and later participated in an awareness programme held at the Rythu Vedika in Bonakal, attended by village sarpanches, public representatives, and government officials.“Speaking on the occasion, Musharraf Faruqui said the Telangana Government is giving special priority to increasing the use of renewable energy and developing model solar villages that can serve as examples for the entire country.““Solar resources are unlimited. It is our collective responsibility to utilise them effectively," he said.“He noted that electricity demand is increasing steadily as power has become an essential part of daily life, while coal—the primary source of electricity generation—is a limited resource. Therefore, promoting green energy is essential not only to reduce dependence on coal but also to protect the environment.“He encouraged households and farmers to install rooftop solar systems and solar power plants in agricultural fields, thereby contributing to clean energy generation. He said the state government is investing around ₹1,000 crore to develop 81 Model Solar Villages across Telangana.“Faruqui reiterated that, under the leadership of Chief Minister Revanth Reddy and Deputy Chief Minister Bhatti Vikramarka, the government is committed to making Telangana a leading solar-powered state. He also noted that Kondareddypalli has already been successfully developed as a fully solar-powered village.“He explained that rooftop solar systems enable families to meet their own electricity needs while supplying surplus power to the grid for additional income. He directed officials to create greater public awareness to encourage solar adoption in every household.“He instructed officials to complete all Model Solar Village works in Bonakal Mandal by 15 August and dedicate them to the public. He also stressed the need for coordination among all departments and the immediate resolution of technical and administrative issues to ensure timely completion.““₹60 Crore for Power Infrastructure Development“TGNPDCL CMD Karnati Varun Reddy, IAS, said nearly ₹60 crore is being invested in strengthening power infrastructure in Bonakal Mandal. He announced that three new substations are being established and proposals are being prepared for a 132 KV substation at Ravinutala.“He said solar power generation offers farmers an opportunity to earn additional income, while solar pump sets help reduce electricity costs and provide long-term benefits.“Varun Reddy added that the Model Solar Villages programme has been progressing continuously in Bonakal Mandal over the past six months. He instructed officials to maintain high-quality standards and develop the villages as role models for the entire state.“He also stated that the expansion of solar pump sets in the agriculture sector would be accelerated after the completion of the Model Solar Villages programme.“Every Household Should Be Solar-Powered: District Collector“Khammam District Collector Divakar T.S., IAS, said that solarising every household would help meet the growing electricity demand through local renewable energy generation.“He pointed out that solar energy reduces dependence on conventional fuel sources while contributing significantly to environmental protection. He urged villagers to actively participate in the Model Solar Villages initiative and promote the use of solar energy.“Officials also held an interactive session with villagers to explain the benefits of Model Solar Villages, rooftop solar systems, and solar pump sets. They highlighted that the programme aims to promote clean energy, reduce electricity costs, protect the environment, and ensure reliable power supply for farmers.“Senior officials from REDCO, TGNPDCL, Superintending Engineers, project officers, district officials, and representatives of implementing agencies participated in the programme.

District Collector Divakar T.S. Urges Beneficiaries to Complete Indiramma Houses with Government Financial Assistance

“* Beneficiaries asked to expedite construction of Indiramma houses“* Stage-wise payments credited directly to beneficiaries' bank accounts every Monday“* Collector inspects progress of Indiramma housing works at Eerlapudi village““Khammam, July 25 indian Chronicle:““Khammam District Collector Divakar T.S. has urged beneficiaries of the Indiramma Housing Scheme to make full use of the government's financial assistance and complete the construction of their houses at the earliest.“On Saturday, the Collector undertook an extensive tour of Raghunathapalem mandal in the Khammam Assembly constituency. During his visit to Eerlapudi village, he conducted a surprise inspection of the progress of Indiramma housing works. He visited houses under construction, reviewed the progress of each unit, interacted directly with beneficiaries, and enquired about the challenges they were facing. He instructed officials to provide all necessary support to ensure that construction is completed without delay.“Speaking on the occasion, Collector Divakar T.S. said that 160 houses were sanctioned in the first phase for Eerlapudi village. Of these, 98 houses have already been completed, while 62 houses are at various stages of construction, with most having completed wall construction and progressing towards the slab stage.“The Collector stated that the government is depositing stage-wise payments directly into beneficiaries' bank accounts every Monday, ensuring that there are no financial hurdles during construction. He added that beneficiaries will receive a total government financial assistance of ₹5 lakh upon completion of their houses. He also recalled that eligible beneficiaries who were unable to complete even the foundation stage had been provided loans through women's self-help groups.“The Collector directed officials from the Revenue, Gram Panchayat, Housing and other departments to work in close coordination to ensure there are no delays in the implementation of the housing programme. He instructed them to ensure the timely supply of construction materials, provide technical assistance, and expedite bill payments. He further directed officials to complete all houses within the stipulated timeframe so that beneficiaries can move into their own homes as scheduled.“Emphasising that the government is giving top priority to fulfilling the dream of home ownership for poor families, the Collector appealed to beneficiaries to utilise the opportunity effectively and construct durable, quality houses.“Housing Project Director Bhukya Srinivas, Executive Engineer Jaggarao, Raghunathapalem Tahsildar Swetha, MPDO Ashok, Eerlapudi Sarpanch Geetha Dev Singh, Housing Assistant Engineers and other officials were present during the inspection.

preciated the support extended by TGNPDCL towards the district's ongoing development initiatives. “Speaking on the occasion, Musharraf Faruqui and Karnati Varun Reddy lauded the district administration for its development and public welfare programmes. They reaffirmed TGNPDCL's commitment to providing full support in delivering reliable and efficient power services to the people. They stated that strengthening the electricity distribution network, ensuring faster consumer services, and resolving public grievances promptly remain the organisation's key priorities.

Keeping in mind the effect of El Nino, farmers should be encouraged to cultivate alternative crops and create awareness:- Yadadri Bhuvanagiri District Local Bodies Additional Collector Bhaskar Rao

“(Yadadri Bhuvanagiri District Bureau.. Indian Chronicle.. July 25):- “Keeping in mind the effect of El Nino, Additional Collector of Local Bodies Bhaskar Rao has instructed the relevant officials to encourage the cultivation of alternative crops and create widespread awareness among the farmers. On Saturday, a meeting was held with the officials of the Agriculture and Horticulture departments under the chairmanship of Additional Collector Bhaskar Rao in the Additional Collector's Chamber. Keeping in mind the rain deficiency conditions due to the effect of El

Nino, the Additional Collector instructed the relevant officials to provide advance awareness to the farmers and encourage the cultivation of alternative crops. On this occasion, the Additional Collector said that keeping in mind the current weather conditions, the cultivation of crops like rice, which require a lot of water, should be reduced and farmers should cultivate wet crops that require less water. He instructed the officials of the Agriculture and Horticulture Department to encourage them. He suggested that farmers should be provided with scientific advice and be guided to prepare crop plans according to the conditions. He instructed the officials to organize special awareness programs in all the farmers' forums in the district from the 28th of this month and provide complete awareness to the farmers on the effects of El Nino, rain-deficient conditions, cultivation of alternative crops, water-saving methods, use of micro-irrigation, etc. He suggested that officials of the Agriculture and Horticulture Departments, as well as Marketing, Irrigation, and Ground Water Departments, should also participate in these awareness programs and work in coordination. He said that meetings should be held mandal-wise to resolve the doubts of the farmers and provide necessary suggestions to face the rain-deficient conditions. The Additional Collector said that farmers can reduce crop losses by keeping in mind the weather conditions, saving water consumption, and following scientific methods. Officials of the Agriculture Department, Hemalatha of the Horticulture Department, and officials of the related departments participated in this meeting.

Drought relief measures should be expedited through VB-G RAM G to combat the impact of El Nino: State Panchayat Raj and Rural Development Minister Seethakka

“(Yadadri Bhuvanagiri District Bureau.. Indian Chronicle.. July 25):- State Panchayat Raj and Rural Development Minister Seethakka said that drought relief measures should be expedited through VB-G RAM G to combat the impact of El Nino. State Panchayat Raj and Rural Development Minister Seethakka instructed officials to undertake drought relief measures, employment generation and water conservation works in rural areas through the VB-G RAM G scheme to effectively combat the drought conditions arising due to the impact of El Nino. In a state-level video conference held on Saturday, the minister held a review with Additional

Collectors (Local Bodies), ZP CEOs, District Rural Development Officers, District Panchayat Officers, Panchayat Raj and Rural Water Supply Department Engineers and MPDOs. On this occasion, the Minister suggested that employment guarantee works should be provided extensively to rural poor families in the context of El Nino conditions. He instructed the officials to give top priority to water conservation, water security, groundwater augmentation and drought mitigation works through the Telangana Jalasiri program. The Minister suggested that the target should be to provide 12 crore person days by March 31, 2027 in the 2026-27 financial year, and steps should be taken to further increase the current target of 4.5 crore person days, keeping in mind the El Nino conditions. He said that with the aim of providing immediate employment to rural families, mobilization of laborers should be undertaken to provide employment opportunities to at least 60 laborers per day in each Gram Panchayat. In the context of the current employment of about 2.26 lakh laborers per day across the state, he instructed the officials to take special action to provide employment to at least 5 lakh people every day from July to October. Minister Smt. Seethakka clarified that besides providing employment to every eligible rural family, water storage capacity enhancement works, development of ponds, rainwater conservation, drought prevention works and rural infrastructure development programs should be implemented expeditiously. After this video conference, Additional Collector of Local Bodies Bhaskar Rao said that MPDOs, MPOs, APOs, Panchayat Raj AEs, and Rural Water Supply Department AEs should work as a team in coordination to effectively deal with the impact of El Nino. He suggested that efforts should be made to expedite employment guarantee works, water conservation programs, and drought relief measures at the village level to provide maximum benefit to the people. Zilla Parishad CEO Shobharani, District Rural Development Officer T. Nagireddy, District Panchayat Officer Srinivas, Additional DRDO Suresh, Deputy CEO Srinivas, Panchayat Raj Engineer Rakesh, MPDOs, MPOs, VB-G RAM G staff and officials of the concerned departments participated.

The centre will provide assistance for voter registration, enrolment of new voters, filling of election forms, correction of voter details, and clarification of voter-related queries. “Ravi stated that Booth Level Officers (BLOs) and Election Department officials will also be present at the help centre to guide citizens through the Special Intensive Revision process, including voter verification, corrections, and other necessary updates. “He appealed to residents of Sai Priya Nagar, ICT Colony, Sai Aishwarya Colony, Satyanarayana Puram Colony, and other localities in the division to make use of this opportunity and complete the required procedures to ensure they do not lose their voting rights.

Congress Will Continue Its Fight Until Justice Is Delivered to Students: MLA Nayini Rajender Reddy

“Hanamkonda, July 25 (Indian Chronicle): A massive Victory Rally and Candlelight Rally were organized on Sunday under the leadership of the Hanamkonda District Congress Committee (DCC) to protest the alleged irregularities and paper leaks in the NEET and CBSE examinations. Following the resignation of Union Education Minister Dharmendra Pradhan, the DCC Programme Implementation Committee organized a victory rally, followed by a candlelight march in solidarity with students. “The event was attended by Warangal West MLA Nayini Rajender Reddy, MLC Baswaraju Saraiah, Parkal MLA Revuri Prakash Reddy, and DCC President Inagala Venkatrami Reddy as chief guests. “The candlelight rally commenced from the Mahatma Gandhi statue at Hanamkonda Public Garden and proceeded to Ambedkar Junction. Congress leaders, party workers, and students participated in the rally, raising slogans against the paper leaks. Later, they paid floral tributes to the statue of Dr. B.R. Ambedkar at Ambedkar Junction. “Speaking on the occasion, MLA Nayini Rajender Reddy said that he prayed for eternal peace for the students who lost their lives due to the paper leak incidents and asserted that the Congress Party would continue its struggle until justice is delivered to the affected students and their families. He stated that the series of paper leaks across the country had pushed students' futures into uncertainty and demanded that the Central Government take full responsibility, saying, “152 paper leaks are not a minor issue, and the Union Government must be held accountable. “He further said that lathi charges and criminal cases against protesting students were against the spirit of democracy. Instead of suppressing students who were peacefully fighting for their rights, the government should ensure their future is protected and provide them with confidence and security. “MLA Nayini Rajender Reddy emphasized that the paper leak issue was not an isolated incident and that the Congress Party would continue to fight on behalf of students and their families until justice is served. “A large number of PCC and DCC leaders, Congress workers, students, and youth participated in the programme.

Farmers Advised to Cultivate Dryland Crops

“Khammam, Nelakondapalli, July 25 (Indian Chronicle): “Ajay Thanda Gram Panchayat Sarpanch Tejavath Shivaji has advised farmers to cultivate dryland crops considering the prevailing weather conditions. “Addressing a farmers' awareness meeting held at Ajay Thanda in Nelakondapalli mandal on Saturday, he urged farmers to take up crops suitable for the current climatic conditions. As water availability remains low, he suggested that farmers opt for alternative crops instead of paddy. “He recommended the cultivation of dryland crops such as green gram (moong), red gram (pigeon pea), black gram (urad), and other pulses. He also noted that scientists have warned that the impact of El Niño could become more severe in the coming months. “Shivaji said that farm ponds offer several benefits to farmers and encouraged them to make the best use of the available opportunities. In view of the present situation, he appealed to farmers to shift towards alternative and water-efficient crops. “Agriculture Extension Officer Srikanth, Panchayat Secretary Bairam Dinesh Kumar, ward members Basha and Sushila, MGNREGS Field Assistant Venkateswarlu, VO President Sakkubai, Gramadeepika Kavitha, ASHA Worker Vijaya, and others participated in the programme.

Youth's Victory Over an Authoritarian Government Judicial Probe Sought into Delhi Violence CPI Leader Bagam Hemanth Rao

“Khammam, July 25 (Indian Chronicle): “CPI National Council Member Bagam Hemanth Rao stated that the resignation of Union Education Minister Dharmendra Pradhan is a lesson for the BJP government and a victory achieved by the youth and students in their struggle against an authoritarian government. “In a statement issued on Saturday following Dharmendra Pradhan's resignation, Hemanth Rao demanded greater transparency from the Central Government in handling the NEET paper leak case. He alleged that the government not only jeopardized the future of lakhs of students but was also responsible for the circumstances that led to the loss of 21 lives. “He accused BJP-affiliated organizations of attempting to cover up the government's failures and of trying to suppress the student and youth movement through violence by inciting communal sentiments. “Hemanth Rao said that despite these challenges, students and youth peacefully organized protests in Delhi with courage and determination, compelling the Central Government to respond. He described their struggle as an inspiration for future generations. “He urged Prime Minister Narendra Modi and Union Home Minister Amit Shah to use the mandate given by the people for their welfare. “Demanding a judicial inquiry into the violence at Jantar Mantar in Delhi, Hemanth Rao alleged that the police acted brutally against the protesters and called for a thorough investigation into the alleged involvement of the RSS and its affiliated organizations. He warned that if the government fails to order a judicial probe, the CPI will launch protest programmes demanding justice.

Congress takes out candlelight rally in Karimnagar backing student agitation Corporation Congress says protests will continue until students' pending demands are met; Rahul Gandhi's support for the movement hailed.

Karimnagar July 25 (Correspondent): The Karimnagar Corporation Congress Committee on Saturday organised a candlelight rally in support of the nationwide student agitation, with party leaders asserting that the protests would continue until the students' pending demands were addressed.

The rally, led by Karimnagar Corporation Congress Committee president Vaidyula Anjan Kumar, commenced at the Rajiv Gandhi statue, passed through Gandhi Road and concluded at the Mahatma Gandhi statue.

Addressing the gathering, Mr. Anjan Kumar said the resignation of the Union Education Minister was only a partial victory and maintained that the agitation would continue until all pending demands of the students were fulfilled. He alleged that the Centre was compelled to respond following the intensification of the student movement at Jantar Mantar in New Delhi and said the Congress would continue its campaign against the NDA government.

He also thanked Congress leader Rahul Gandhi for extending support to the student community, claiming that his protest in front of the Prime Minister's residence reflected the party's commitment to issues concerning the youth.

Among those who participated in the rally were Congress leaders Komatireddy Narender Reddy, Alphores Narender Reddy, Velichala Rajender Rao and Madupu Mohan, along with several corporators, division Congress presidents, executive committee members, youth leaders, students and party workers.

Uppal Police Conduct Large-Scale Awareness Drive on Drugs and Cyber Crimes: SHO Ramalinga Reddy

“UPPAL, JULY 25 (INDIAN CHRONICLE): With the objective of protecting society from the menace of drugs and creating awareness about the growing threat of cyber crimes, the Uppal Police organized a special public awareness programme at the Uppal Skywalk on Saturday. “During the campaign, police officials educated the public about the harmful effects of drug abuse, ways to safeguard themselves from cyber fraud, and the importance of immediately informing the police about any suspicious persons or activities. “The programme was led by Uppal SHO Ramalinga Reddy, along with Sub-Inspectors Rajaniker and Chiranjeevi, and personnel from the Special Party. The team distributed awareness pamphlets to visitors at the skywalk and urged people, especially youngsters, to stay away from drugs. Parents were also advised to remain vigilant and ensure that their children do not fall prey to substance abuse. “The officials further cautioned the public against cyber frauds involving fake phone calls, phishing links, OTP scams, and requests for bank account details. Citizens were advised never to share personal or banking information with unknown persons and to immediately contact the Cyber Crime Helpline 1930 or the nearest police station if they become victims of cyber fraud. “Around 100 members of the public participated in the awareness programme and listened attentively to the safety guidelines and messages shared by the police. “The Uppal Police emphasized that public participation is crucial in eliminating drug abuse and controlling cyber crimes. They also stated that similar awareness programmes will be conducted on a larger scale in the future to ensure a safer and more secure society.
