

Let's fight against the anti-people policies of the central and state governments.

.Rasala Venkatesh, a public leader who fought for the rights of the exploited peasant community and the working class:
- CPM Telangana State Secretary John Wesley's call

["(Yadadri Bhuvanagiri District Bureau.. Indian Chronicle.. August 7):- CPM State Secretary John Wesley called on the people to prepare for struggles against the anti-people policies being followed by the Modi government at the center and the Revanth Reddy government in the state. In the meeting, he urged all comrades to work hard to achieve the aspirations of the immortal comrade Rasala Venkatesh, who fought for the rights of the people throughout his life. Speaking at a huge public meeting held after the unveiling of the memorial stupa built in the village on the occasion of the first death anniversary of CPM senior leaders and former Sarpanch Comrade Rasala Venkatesham in Basvapuram village under Bhuvanagiri mandal on Thursday night, CPM Central Committee member S. Veeraiah, District Secretary Y. Jahangir and family members, John Wesley criticized Narendra Modi, who is continuing the administration led by the BJP at the Center, for being like a dictator and saying, "I am the king, I am the minister." He criticized the students who are fighting to take action against the mistakes made in the NEET exam and for continuing to detain the youth, taking pleasure in the devilish pleasure of subjecting them to unimaginable suffering. He called on the people to rise up against the unfair policies of the corporate powers being followed by the BJP, to repeal the labor codes, VBG Gram G Act, and to withdraw the amendments to the electricity, seed, and national food security laws. He criticized the Revanth Reddy government, which came to power in the state in the name of R guarantees, for turning education and medicine into a business day by day, keeping the poor away from education and medicine. He demanded an answer as to why free education and medicine are not being provided. The poor are still facing difficulties due to lack of houses and house plots. He asked that all the poor who do not have houses be given house plots and houses be constructed. He said that movements will be launched across the state for the implementation of the promises made by the Revanth Reddy government. CPM central member S. Veeraiah said that looking at the huge crowd that has come here, it is necessary to understand the level at which Rasalam Venkatesham worked for the people.

He said that many small countries in the world, which continue to rule under the leadership of the red flag, are providing all kinds of facilities to the people even in the largest country in the world. He said that mainly education, medicine, employment, housing, land for plowing and living, and even minimum facilities are being provided in that country on a large scale by the government sector. But in our country, which is the second largest country in the world, they have done nothing for the people except looting and they are not interested in the welfare of the poor except in favor of corporate powers, he criticized these governments. He said that the ongoing looting in this society should end and rights should be resolved only with the red flag, and he called on all the people to support the red flag in the coming period. CPM District Secretary Yandi Jahangir said that Comrade Venkatesham fought on a large scale for the farmers who lost their lands in the Baswapuram project and for the people of various villages that were flooded. He said that many movements were taken up for the resolution of farmers' problems, for remunerative prices and for market facilities. He informed that Rama played a key role in development as a village sarpanch. He called for intensifying the people's struggles in the coming period with their inspiration. State committee members Kondamadugu Narsimha and Venkatesh's son Srikanth also participated and spoke. The program was presided over by village branch secretary Macha Bhaskar. CPM district secretariat members Maturi Balaraju, Kalluri Mallesham, Dasari Pandu, Burugu Krishna Reddy, district committee members Dayyala Narsimha, mandal secretary Pallerla Anjaiah, family members former village sarpanch Rasala Nirmala, Srisailam, village sarpanch Bikshapati, Gaddam Venkatesh, Maya Krishna, Annampatla Krishna, Madhyapuram Bal Narasimha, Babu, Chandrayya, Vishnu, Devender, Krishna, Rahiman and others participated. ## Residents of Sri Abhaya Township Submit Petition to Edulapuram Municipal Commissioner Seeking Basic Infrastructure

“Khammam/Edulapuram, August 7: Indian Chronicle” “Residents of Sri Abhaya Township in Ward No. 6 of Edulapuram Municipality, Khammam Rural Mandal, submitted a petition to the Municipal Commissioner requesting immediate steps to provide essential civic amenities in the colony.” “Speaking on the occasion, colony representatives said that the township has not yet been provided with a Mission Bhagiratha drinking water pipeline, forcing residents to face severe drinking water shortages. They urged the Commissioner to sanction the pipeline and begin the work at the earliest.” “The residents also pointed out that the absence of a proper drainage system has been causing serious inconvenience, especially during the rainy season. They further stated that the lack of CC roads has made transportation and daily commuting difficult. They requested the authorities to take up drainage and CC road works on a priority basis.” “The residents appealed to the Municipal Commissioner to provide all the required basic infrastructure and resolve the long-pending issues of the township at the earliest.” “Responding positively to the petition, the Municipal Commissioner assured the residents that the construction of the two roads already sanctioned for the township, as promised during the previous elections, would begin in September.” “The Commissioner also assured that the development of internal roads, drainage facilities, Mission Bhagiratha pipeline connectivity, and other essential civic amenities would be taken up in a phased manner. He further stated that Sri Abhaya Township would receive development works on par with other townships under the municipality.” “The residents expressed happiness over the Commissioner's positive response and assurance.

Census handbook data collection from August 10, Officials asked to complete district-level exercise by September 8 as part of preparations for the 2027 Census.

Karimnagar August 7 (Correspondent): Telangana State Census Director Bharati Holikeri has directed officials to begin collection of data for the District Census Handbook (DCHB) from August 10 and complete the exercise by September 8 as part of the preparatory work for the 2027 Census of India.

Ms. Holikeri reviewed the progress of the DCHB preparation through a video conference held from Census Bhavan in Hyderabad on Friday. Karimnagar Municipal Corporation Commissioner Praful Desai, Deputy Commissioner Khader Mohiuddin and DCP Bashiruddin participated in the meeting from the corporation office.

The review focused on preparation of the District Census Handbook, which will contain comprehensive information on towns and villages in the district based on census records. Officials were briefed on the nature of data to be collected from urban areas, statistical requirements and the methodology to be adopted for the exercise.

According to officials, the handbook will include details of hospitals and healthcare facilities, schools and colleges, educational, recreational and cultural amenities, drinking water supply, transport, electricity, banking services and other civic infrastructure. Information relating to wards, number of households, population, sex ratio, literacy, Scheduled Caste and Scheduled Tribe population, farmers, labourers, drainage and sanitation facilities, railway stations and bus terminals will also be compiled.

Ms. Holikeri said the District Census Handbook is an important official reference document in the census process and serves as a key source for planning government development programmes, local administration, research and assessment of regional progress.

She instructed the departments concerned to coordinate closely and ensure that the field-level data collection is completed within the stipulated time without operational difficulties. The collected information will be uploaded and mapped through the online census web portal, officials said.

Saidapur market yard works launched, Minister lays foundation for warehouse and market building; says project will improve services to farmers.

Karimnagar August 7 (Correspondent): Minister for Transport and Backward Classes Welfare Ponnamp Prabhakar on Friday laid the foundation stone for a 100-metric-tonne warehouse to be built at a cost of ₹30 lakh and for a new agricultural market building at Saidapur mandal headquarters in Karimnagar district. As part of the Vanamahotsavam programme, the Minister also planted saplings at Venkatapalli and Saidapur. District Collector Chitra Mishra, Market Committee Chairman Dontha Sudhakar, sarpanches of several villages, public representatives and officials participated in the event. Addressing the gathering, Mr. Prabhakar said the development of the Saidapur market yard, which had remained pending for several years, was being taken up with an outlay of ₹1.5 crore. The proposed warehouse, he said, would improve storage facilities for farmers and support agricultural marketing in the region. The Minister appealed to residents of the Husnabad constituency to plant at least one sapling each and participate in environmental conservation efforts under Vanamahotsavam. He said the government would consider establishing sub-market yards in villages where at least five acres of land were made available. Such facilities, he added, would help farmers in Saidapur mandal market their produce more conveniently. Emphasising water conservation, Mr. Prabhakar urged villagers to construct soak pits in their houses and prepare injection bores to recharge groundwater.

They also urged people to exercise caution while sharing personal information and photographs and to be wary of individuals who may misuse their trust.

Karimnagar native appointed TPCC social media chairman

Petteem Naveen entrusted with key organisational responsibility; says he will focus on strengthening the party's outreach through digital platforms.

Karimnagar August 7 (Correspondent): The Congress party has appointed Karimnagar native Petteem Naveen as the Telangana Pradesh Congress Committee (TPCC) State Social Media Chairman, entrusting him with a key organisational responsibility.

The appointment was announced through orders issued by AICC General Secretary and MP K.C. Venugopal on Thursday night.

Mr. Naveen had earlier served as the State Social Media Coordinator of the party. During that tenure, he coordinated social media activities across districts and held regular interactions with local party workers, contributing to the party's outreach efforts during the run-up to the Assembly elections.

Reacting to his appointment, Mr. Naveen expressed gratitude to Chief Minister A. Revanth Reddy, Deputy Chief Minister Mallu Bhatti Vikramarka, TPCC president B. Mahesh Kumar Goud, Minister Ponnamp Prabhakar, and local legislators for reposing confidence in him.

He said he would strive to strengthen the party organisation further and use social media platforms to disseminate information about the welfare and development programmes being implemented by the Congress government to a wider section of the public.

Party leaders in Karimnagar welcomed the appointment and described it as recognition of the district's representation in the State-level party structure.

Make August 10 'Jail Bharo' Programme a Grand Success: Samyukta Kisan Morcha

“Khammam, August 7 – Indian Chronicle” Leaders of the Samyukta Kisan Morcha (SKM) and various farmers' and workers' organisations have called upon people to participate in large numbers in the nationwide 'Jail Bharo' programme to be held on August 10, protesting against the alleged anti-people policies of the Central Government led by Prime Minister Narendra Modi. “The appeal was made during an all-party joint meeting of farmers', agricultural, and labour organisations held on Friday at the CPI office (Giriprasad Bhavan) in Khammam. “Addressing the meeting, the leaders alleged that the Central Government is attempting to push the already crisis-hit agricultural sector into deeper distress by promoting policies that favour corporate interests. They claimed that despite announcing the withdrawal of the controversial farm laws after the historic farmers' agitation, the Government is attempting to implement similar measures through indirect means. “The leaders demanded the complete withdrawal of the proposed agricultural reforms and called for the cancellation of the India-US trade agreement, alleging that it would adversely affect Indian farmers. “They also alleged that the Government is weakening the Mahatma Gandhi National Rural Employment Guarantee Scheme (MGNREGS) by introducing alternative programmes, thereby affecting the livelihood of rural poor. “Criticising the implementation of the four Labour Codes, the leaders said the Government had repealed 44 labour laws in favour of corporate interests and demanded that the Labour Codes be withdrawn. “The leaders urged farmers, agricultural workers, labourers, and the general public to participate in large numbers and make the August 10 'Jail Bharo' programme a success. “The meeting was attended by leaders from CPI, CPM, Congress, BRS, Mass Line organisations, New Democracy, and several farmers' and labour unions, including Kondaparthi Govinda Rao, Dondapati Ramesh, Thati Venkateswarlu, Thota Ramanjaneyulu, Tummala Yugandhar, Yaragarla Hanumantha Rao, Narala Naresh, Khader Babu, Ponnamm Venkateswara Rao, Kalyanam Venkateswara Rao, Madineni Ramesh, Bonthu Rambabu, Yerra Srinu, Y. Vikram, MDY Pasha, Ramaiah, Bandela Venkaiah, Immadi Hanumantha Rao, Prakash, and I. Venkanna. [6:39 PM, 8/7/2026] +91 96187 88997: End

Farmers assured by cultivating alternative crops: State Irrigation Minister Uttam Kumar Reddy State Ministers, Chief Secretary of the State Government held a video conference with district collectors

... State Ministers Uttam Kumar Reddy ""(Yadadri Bhuvanagiri District Bureau.. Indian Chronicle.. August 7):- As there are chances of less rainfall in the state in the coming days, State Irrigation Minister Uttam Kumar Reddy has instructed the district collectors to divert farmers towards cultivating alternative crops instead of rice cultivation, which requires a lot of water." On Friday, from Hyderabad, State Irrigation Minister Uttam Kumar Reddy, Agriculture Minister Tummala Nageswara Rao, State Excise, Tourism, Culture and Youth Minister Jupally Krishna Rao, and State Government Chief Secretary Sanjay Jaju held a video conference with the collectors of all districts and reviewed the seasonal conditions, agriculture, Mandal Prajavani, Vanamahotsavam, distribution of smart ration cards, Cheyutha pensions, and progress of school uniform sewing work. District Collector Anurag Jayanthi and Revenue Additional Collector Venka Reddy were present from this video conference hall. "In this context, State Irrigation Minister Uttam Kumar Reddy said that as per the predictions of the India Meteorological Department (IMD), farmers should organize wide awareness programs so that they do not expand the cultivation of crops that require a lot of water like paddy and cultivate alternative crops. He directed the agriculture officials to work to ensure that a clear message reaches every farmer as farmers are likely to increase paddy cultivation due to the current rains, and that such a situation could cause losses to farmers in the future. He said that no decision has been taken on the release of irrigation water at present, and that a decision on the release of irrigation water will be taken according to the situation after reviewing the water levels of all major projects for another 15 days. He said that the government is taking steps to fill every available water source based on the water flows coming into the Krishna and Godavari river basins. He instructed the officials to monitor the water storage of all irrigation projects from time to time. The Minister said that the state government is giving top priority to the welfare of the poor. He said that the Telangana government has sanctioned more than 16 lakh new ration cards keeping in mind the welfare of poor families. He said that smart ration cards will be distributed to all 1.05 crore ration card beneficiaries in the state from August 15th. He instructed the district collectors to make all arrangements to ensure that the distribution of smart ration cards in the districts is transparent and without any problems and that they reach every eligible family on time. Speaking at the event, Agriculture Minister Tummala Nageswara Rao ordered the implementation of the crop diversification action plan in each district as usual. He suggested that all types of seeds required for alternative crops should be made available to the farmers in advance. He said that various crops have been cultivated in 99,81,167 acres in the state so far. He suggested that a wide campaign be conducted to divert farmers towards alternative crop cultivation with the help of local public representatives. Since the rainfall is likely to decrease further after August 15, irrigation water advisory meetings should be held in each district and a cultivation plan should be prepared based on water availability. ""He clarified that due to the impact of international conditions, there is a possibility of an impact on electricity supply in the future, so it is necessary to be vigilant in water consumption and not to increase rice cultivation further. ""Currently, rice cultivation is done in about 35 lakh acres in the state, and alternative crops should be encouraged to prevent it from increasing further. He said that seeds of kandi, pesara and minumulu have been made available to farmers, and the distribution of pulses seeds is continuing. Similarly, State Government Chief Secretary Sanjay Jaju said that plans and crop diversification programs should be further accelerated as experts suggest that the effect of El Nino is likely to increase from next month. He suggested that work should be done with the aim of diverting at least 50 percent of the area under rice cultivation in the state towards alternative crops. He said that alternative crops like oil palm, pulses, vegetables, yam, sorghum, sunflower and small grains should be promoted in at least 15 lakh acres across the state. He suggested that the planting targets set under Vanamahotsavam should be completed and special measures should be taken to protect the planted plants. He ordered that as many ink pits as possible should be constructed during this rainy season as part of the VBGRAMG program. He suggested that the 1.05 crore Telangana Smart Ration Card distribution program should be effectively conducted from August 15, the list of new Cheyutha Pensions eligible persons should be prepared as per the government guidelines and steps should be taken to ensure that pensions are received from next month. Later, the District Collector spoke to the concerned officials.. The officials should create widespread awareness so that every farmer can set up an integrated farm pond in their agricultural field. Every farmer should adopt integrated farming methods and move forward towards achieving sustainable income without relying on a single crop. It was clarified that the officials of the relevant departments should widely publicize this program through village assemblies and complete it within the specified time limit. "ZP CEO Shobha Rani, District Rural Development Officer Nagi Reddy, DAO Ramana Reddy, other concerned officials, etc. participated in this video conference.

Juvenile Justice Board Takes Strict Action Against Minor Driving Four Minors Ordered to Attend Observation Home for One Month

“Khammam, August 7 (Indian Chronicle): “The Traffic Police produced four minors before the Juvenile Justice Board on Friday after they were caught violating traffic rules and driving vehicles without a valid licence. “To discourage minor driving and instill a sense of social responsibility and discipline among the children, Juvenile Justice Board Judge Mrs. B. Rajani issued key directions. The four minors have been ordered to attend an Observation Home once a week for one month and participate in social awareness and rehabilitation activities, said Traffic Inspector Satyanarayana. “He stated that the Juvenile Justice Board is taking a strict approach against minor driving, which has become a major cause of road accidents. He warned that minors found driving vehicles will face serious legal consequences. “The Traffic Police appealed to the public to strictly follow traffic rules and urged parents not to allow their minor children to drive vehicles. Officials said the objective of these measures is to curb minor driving and reduce road accidents.

Not just for caste rights.. “The Dark Mother's fight for the heart of poor little children is historic.

.. “Nuguru/ Venkatapuram. Indian Chronicle. Aug07. “The MRPS founders at the R&B Guest House compound in Venkatapuram, Mulugu district, held a health education day event under the leadership of District President Yasam Ramesh Madiga on the invitation of Padmashree Mandakrishna. “On this occasion Yasam Ramesh Madiga said.. Mandakrishna Madiga's fight to provide free treatment for the hearts of children from poor families was a landmark in the history of joint Andhra Pradesh social health. He said his movement with a humanitarian perspective, not just for social rights, saved the lives of many poor children. “After the fight of Mandakrishna Madiga for necessary funds to treat Naseema, a girl suffering from heart failure in 2004, the government has taken steps to provide free cardiac diagnostic camps across the state as well as free cardiac operations for poor children. The fight was said to be the foundation for the expansion of free medical services in later times. “The event was attended by the senior leaders of EMARPS: Guggila Narendra Madiga, Yasam Mahesh Madiga, Mallikarjun Madiga, Sampath Madiga, Santosh Madiga, Vavila Prasad Madiga, Chinnam Satyam Madiga, Sammayya Madiga and Sanjeev Madiga.

Inspector Karunakar Hands Over 17 Recovered Mobile Phones to Their Owners

“Khammam, August 7 (Indian Chronicle): “The Khammam One Town Police successfully recovered 17 mobile phones that were either lost or stolen on different occasions and returned them to their rightful owners on Friday. “Speaking on the occasion, One Town Inspector Karunakar said that the mobile phones were traced and recovered with the help of the Central Equipment Identity Register (CEIR) Portal and IMEI tracking technology. The recovery operation was carried out by the One Town Police personnel in coordination with the IT Core Team, who traced the devices from different parts of the country. “The recovered mobile phones were handed over personally to the victims, who expressed their gratitude to the Khammam Police for their prompt efforts and efficient service. “Inspector Karunakar stated that, in today's digital age, a mobile phone is not just a communication device but also stores valuable personal information, banking details, and financial data. He advised the public to immediately report any lost or stolen mobile phone to the nearest police station and register the complaint through the CEIR Portal so that the device can be traced and recovered at the earliest.

People Will Not Tolerate Forgotten Promises: Bagam Hemantha Rao "Governments Must Fulfil Their Assurances, Says CPI Leader During Praja Chaitanya Yatra

"Warm Welcome in Villages; Rally Featured Cultural Performances and Drum Troupes

“Khammam, August 7 (Indian Chronicle):“CPI National Council Member Bagam Hemantha Rao warned that people would not tolerate governments that forget the promises they made during elections. He demanded that both the Central and State governments sincerely implement the assurances given to the public. “As part of the CPI Praja Chaitanya Yatra, a padayatra (foot march) was conducted on Friday across Mudigonda, Nelakondapalli, Kusumanchi, and Tirumalayapalem mandals in Khammam district. The yatra received a warm welcome from villagers, while traditional drum troupes and folk performances added enthusiasm to the programme. “Addressing public meetings at various villages, Hemantha Rao alleged that Prime Minister Narendra Modi had come to power promising to strengthen agriculture, make farming profitable, create two crore jobs every year, eliminate black money, and deposit ₹15 lakh into every citizen's bank account. He claimed that none of these promises had been fulfilled. “He further alleged that unemployment in the country has increased and that several public sector undertakings have been handed over to corporate groups. He criticized the privatization of major sectors, including railways, airports, and ports, and accused the Central Government of moving towards policies that would adversely affect the agricultural sector. He said that strong people's movements would compel governments to respond to public demands. “Hemantha Rao also criticized the Telangana Government, alleging that it had failed to implement several election promises. He said that welfare measures such as free bus travel and subsidized rice alone were not enough and urged the government to fulfil all commitments made to the people. He clarified that the Praja Chaitanya Yatra was aimed at creating public awareness and building pressure on governments to implement their promises. “Speaking at the meetings, CPI Khammam District Secretary Dandi Suresh alleged that the Congress government was delaying the implementation of its election promises. He stated that the farm loan waiver had not been completed in full and demanded the immediate implementation of schemes such as Indiramma Bharosa, Rythu Bima, Crop Insurance, ₹2,500 monthly financial assistance for women, and the one tola gold scheme. “The programme was attended by CPI district and state leaders, members of various people's organizations, and a large number of party workers and supporters.”
