Sugar Factory Launches Development Schemes

Journalist-Ajay Kr Mishra "BETTIAH/BIHAR, SEPTEMBER 21(INDIAN CHRONICLE)" "The New Svadeshi Sugar Mill Narkatiaganj has launched several development schemes for the welfare of the rural areas under 'Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) to make rural economy strong as well as to provide employment. "

As the Executive President of Narkatiaganj Sugar Mill - Ravindra Kumar Tiwary said that under this scheme the wards of cane growers would get skill based education. For this computer training has been launched under the guidance of NIIT ,New Delhi and computer training centre is being run to provide computer and digital education among the adolescent. As in session 2025-26 ,37 youths got employment. Not only this to make the women of rural areas economically strong and self dependent the training centre of sewing has been launched.After getting training the women of rural areas would be financially strong and in this way women empowerment would be strong. "

He further said that in the field medical several programs had been organised as free medical check up, medicine distribution and medical advice to the people of the concerned area.A facility of mobile van is also provided and in the area of 449 villages under the area of the sugar factory free medical camps would be organised and free medicine would be provided.After that the peasants of the area would feel comfortable. The aim of CSR is not only to provide help immediate but also to bring development in the fields of education, women empowerment, Skill based education as well as to make rural economy strong.After that a change would be seen in society in the field of employment, good health and education. "

The progressive plans of Sugar industry Narkatiaganj has made the adolescent of the area enthusiastic towards cane farming. As cane crop is known as the cash crop in the area.The farmers of the area become victims of flood and drought every year in this circumstances cane farming provides them help.To increase cane farming in the state the Sugar industries and state government has launched various schemes for the welfare of the cane growers.As the land of West Champaran is fertile for cane farming where 5 Sugar industries are in running state while one Sugar industry Chanpatia is closed.Due to closed Sugar factory Chanpatia the economy of Chanpatia locality has dwindled. To boost up the economy of Chanpatia the renovation of closed sugar industry would be essential. After that the economy of the district would also jump.As it is noted that the adolescent of the district showed apathetic attitude towards cane farming and other farming in the district and other parts of the state.But after the announcement of the government to provide cooperation in cane farming and other farming they turned towards agriculture. But natural calamities like flood and drought disappointed and in this year the cane crops of some peasants in Bagha and Bettiah subdivisions areas submerged in the Gandak river which made the victims frustrated. The anti-people policies of the central state should be reversed

JV Chalapathy Rao, National Leader of All India Rythu Kooli Sangam

INDIAN CHRONICLE KHAMMAM K SANJAY "T-- The roar of the anti-people policies of the Center and the states"--- The united struggle for the welfare of farmers and laborers is a refuge!"--- The marching band of troops and the army of red flags trampled the toilers"--- AIKMS 4th National Congress to be held at Khammam on 28th, 29th and 30th should be won. "Khammam, September 21 : JV Chalapathirao, the national leader of All India Farmers and Labourers' Association, said that the anti-people policies of the central government should be reversed. He said that public, labor and farmer welfare development schemes are possible only through united struggles. He called for victory in the AIKMS National Congress to be held on 28th, 29th and 30th of this month. "On Monday, the streets of Khammam city echoed with the vibrancy of red flags and the struggle of laborers. All India Rythu Kooli Sangam (AIKMS) and CPI under the leadership of ML New Democracy have sounded the alarm against the anti-people policies of the central and state governments, which are eradicating the rights of the farmer who is the backbone of the society's progress. The excitement of drumming and the disciplined footfall of the red shirt volunteers from the district office to NSP Road, Rythu Bazar, Bhakta Ramdasu Kalakshetra, Mayuri Center and Illandu Cross Road filled the people of the city with a huge demonstration. On this occasion, J.V. Chalapathy Rao said that the rulers should not ignore the problems faced by farmers, agricultural workers, laborers and poor families. He said that the farmer is worried about how to support the family if the crop grown by the farmer does not get a reasonable price, and if the employment opportunities decrease, the livelihood of the laborer families will become questionable. He said that it is the responsibility of everyone to protect the rights and laws achieved for public welfare. "Stating that there is a drought situation in the country, he demanded that drought relief measures should be taken immediately. To provide remunerative prices for agricultural products and to implement the promise of fixing the minimum support price at 50 percent of the cost of crop production. He wanted to give legitimacy to MSP. They demanded action on issues like farmers' loan waiver, crop loans, compensation for natural calamities and crop insurance. "Impact on the poor if the guarantee of employment is weakened" Chalapathy Rao said that there is a need to protect the employment guarantee scheme. He mentioned that things like change in the name of the scheme and measures to increase the share of the states may affect the employment of the rural poor. He asked to strengthen the schemes for providing employment to laborers in rural areas. "He said that the proposals to reduce the quantity of rice received by the poor families under the Antyodaya scheme will affect the food security of the poor families. They demanded to continue the policy of 35 kg of rice to the poor. "Changes in the power sector should not be a burden on the common man" He also expressed concern over the Electricity Amendment Bill-2025. He said that there is a need to protect the rights of states in the power sector. He asked to ensure that things like smart meters, advance charges, cross subsidy do not affect common consumers and farmers. "They demanded that free electricity supply to agriculture should be continued in Telangana and measures should be taken to prevent additional burden on farmers by setting up meters for agricultural motors in future. He asked to stop the privatization of power sector. "J.V. said that farmers, agricultural workers, workers, poor and people should prepare for united struggle for the protection of public, labor and farmer's rights. Chalapathy Rao called. He said that unity is the main strength in public movements for the security of people's lives, the farmers' harvest, the employment of workers and the welfare of the poor. "AIKMS Telangana State Honorary President V. Koteswara Rao, Telangana State President Secretaries, Mamidala Bikshapati, Gaini Ilaiah, former State Secretary Mandal Venkanna, state leaders Bandari Ilaiah, Nandagiri Venkateshwarlu, Enugu Chandra Reddy, Shankar, Saidulu, Devender, Jada Satyanarayana, Adilakshmi, Y. Three Crore Gold Loan Scam “Khammam Staffer, September 21, Indian Chronicle.” A highly sensational gold loan mega scam has come to light at the Aswaraopeta mandal headquarters. With it emerging that gold loan irregularities worth as much as Rs. 3 crore took place through a local bank, the incident is causing a major stir locally. The manner in which a large-scale racket was allegedly operated behind the backs of customers who climbed the bank steps with trust, leaving them shocked, has now become a hot topic across the mandal. “? Loans in one person's name for another..!!” It appears that this illegal operation was run with the assistance of a bank employee. Allegations are pouring in that, without the genuine account holders having any information whatsoever, gold held in one person's name was transferred to another person's name and a huge amount of Rs. 3 crore was siphoned off in the form of gold loans using fake details. Shocking details are emerging that these irregularities were not limited to just one bank but were also linked with other prominent financial institutions such as Shriram Finance and Muthoot. “? Role of gold shop owners..!!” Normally, the physical presence of the account holder and mobile OTPs are crucial for a gold loan to be sanctioned. However, suspicions are being raised that a large network was behind sanctioning loans worth crores of rupees by transferring gold held by gold shop owners into other names with the support of insiders, even without any of these requirements. “? Tension at the bank.” As this matter began to come out, victims and local newspaper reporters arrived at the bank in large numbers, leading to heated arguments and tension there. As the situation went out of control, it appears that the bank staff informed their higher authorities. Locals are demanding an impartial investigation and action to determine who the masterminds behind this Rs. 3 crore mega scam are..?? and how many more people were involved.

Double-Bedroom Allotments Raise Questions in Kagaznagar

Poor Left in Huts as Well-Off Get Double-Bedroom Houses “Indian Chronicle, Kagaznagar, September 21: How Did the Rich Get Double-Bedroom Houses, Ask the Poor; Poor residents without proper shelter in Kagaznagar are questioning how double-bedroom houses meant for the economically disadvantaged were allegedly allotted to financially well-off people. “Recently, double-bedroom houses were allotted in the Kagaznagar Municipality and rural areas of Komuram Bheem Asifabad district. While some beneficiaries are reportedly poor families without proper homes, residents allege that some houses have also been allotted to people who own and live in three- and four-storey buildings. “On what basis were double-bedroom houses allotted to people who are already living in luxurious buildings?” poor residents asked. They said they continue to live in huts, exposed to the scorching sun and rain, despite being in need of permanent housing. “Some residents have also alleged that, with the support of political leaders, double-bedroom houses in urban areas and Indiramma houses in rural areas were allotted to certain ineligible beneficiaries. “The residents are demanding transparency in the beneficiary selection process and want the authorities to clarify the criteria followed in allotting the houses. “Who will answer these questions — the higher officials or the elected representatives?” the poor residents asked, urging the authorities to examine the allegations and ensure that housing benefits reach genuinely eligible families.

Land acquisition for irrigation projects in the state.. forest land compensation.. R&R works should be expedited.. Instructions to officials:- State Irrigation Minister Uttam Kumar Reddy “(Yadadri Bhuvanagiri District Bureau..Indian Chronicle...September 21):- State Irrigation Minister Uttam Kumar Reddy has instructed officials to expedite the land acquisition, forest land compensation, and R&R works required for irrigation projects in the state.” State Irrigation Minister Uttam Kumar Reddy, Transport Minister Ponnamm Prabhakar, and State Chief Secretary Sanjay Jaju held a video conference with the collectors of all districts on Monday to review the progress of pending land acquisition, forest land compensation, and rehabilitation-restoration (R&R) works related to all irrigation projects in the state.” In-charge District Collector Bhaskar Rao and Revenue Additional Collector Venka Reddy participated from this video conference hall. Speaking on the occasion, Minister Uttam Kumar Reddy said that the Chief Minister has agreed to release the funds required for land acquisition, forest land compensation and R&R works required for irrigation projects in the state in full. He said that the government will take steps to provide funds as required by transferring funds from other sources in addition to the funds allocated to the Irrigation Department. The Minister said that a total of Rs. 6 thousand crores will be released for land acquisition in the financial year 2026-27. He said that Rs. 1,050 crores and Rs. 1,500 crores have already been released, bringing the total to Rs. 2,550 crores. He said that it is worrying that most of the released funds are still in the accounts of the officials and have not reached the beneficiaries. The Minister ordered the District Collectors to expedite the payment of compensation to the beneficiaries of land acquisition. Even if the funds are not sufficient or payments are not possible due to other reasons, the details should be sent to the government and proposals should be submitted for additional funds. It was clarified that the released funds should not be kept with the authorities and the works should not be kept pending. “The Minister suggested that special officers should be appointed and given responsibility for land acquisition works and that this issue should be completed with the utmost priority. He directed the Chief Engineers of the Irrigation Department to continuously coordinate with the Revenue officials and inform the government about the progress of land acquisition from time to time. He said that the government is ready to release additional funds as per the requirement after the Rs. 2,550 crores already released are fully utilized. The Minister suggested that the officials should take this issue as a top priority and complete the land acquisition works as funds are being provided from other sources in addition to the Chief Minister's budget for irrigation projects. He ordered that land acquisition should be completed with priority so that the Pendlipakala reservoir works are completed before the SLBC tunnel is completed. The Minister suggested that if any problems arise regarding land acquisition, they should be brought to the notice of the Land Acquisition Commissioner in Hyderabad and resolved. Transport Minister Ponnamm Prabhakar said that he has ordered the district collectors to complete the compensation payments for the lands that have already been awarded as a top priority. He said that if compensation is not received for a long time even after the award is issued, there is a possibility of increasing dissatisfaction among the people and demands for higher compensation. He suggested that a review be conducted every week on the pending land acquisition of irrigation projects and the work should be expedited. State Chief Secretary Sanjay Jaju said that so far in the current financial year, about Rs. 3,100 crore worth of land acquisition and R&R works have been identified, and funds worth Rs. 2,514 crore have been released. District collectors were advised to take steps to ensure that the compensation reaches the farmers directly and complete the land acquisition process as soon as possible. It was stated that there is some delay due to the increase in land prices in some areas and the demand for high compensation. Revenue Divisional Officer Krishna Reddy, Irrigation S.E. Ravinder, Bhuvanagiri Tehsildar Jagan Mohan Prasad, senior officials of the concerned departments and district officials participated in this video conference.
