Telangana Movement Activists Demand Immediate Fulfilment of Government Assurances

Hunger Strike Enters 54th Day; Activists Express Anger Over Delay in Implementing Promises

""ALWAL, NOVEMBER 9(INDIAN CHRONICLE)""Telangana movement activists have demanded that the state government immediately fulfil the assurances made to those who played a crucial role in the struggle for the formation of Telangana state.Activists recalled that during the Telangana movement, thousands of people set aside their families and personal responsibilities and participated in the struggle, risking their lives for the cause. Many were imprisoned, suffered severe financial losses and faced numerous hardships and difficulties during the prolonged agitation. Despite their sacrifices and significant contribution to the formation of the state, the activists alleged that the assurances made by the Congress government after coming to power remain unfulfilled.Expressing strong dissatisfaction over the delay, the activists pointed out that nearly three years have passed since the government assumed office, but several promises are yet to be implemented. They demanded immediate issuance of identity cards to Telangana movement activists, implementation of welfare schemes, monthly pensions, financial assistance and allocation of house sites.As part of their protest seeking justice and fulfilment of these demands, the hunger strike entered its 54th day on Monday. Suresh sat on the hunger strike on the day.Patolla Surender Reddy, Putnala Krishna, Dayakar, Muthyalu, Srinivas Goud and Ramesh participated in the programme and extended their solidarity to the ongoing protest. The activists urged the government to recognise the sacrifices of Telangana movement participants and honour its promises without further delay.

No Prajavani petition should be neglected, says Collector

Chitra Mishra calls for field-level enquiries and speedy disposal; 1,063 of 5,943 applications remain pending.

Karimnagar November 09, Khaja Sikandar Mohiuddin (Correspondent): District Collector Chitra Mishra has directed officials to examine public grievances with a humanitarian approach and ensure their speedy redressal, stressing that no petition received under the Prajavani programme should be neglected.

Reviewing the functioning of the public grievance redressal mechanism at the Integrated District Offices Complex (IDOC) here on Monday, she instructed officials to conduct field-level enquiries into every petition, take appropriate action and keep applicants informed about the status of their grievances.

Emphasising the need for transparency and accountability, Ms. Mishra asked officials to maintain comprehensive records of petitions received, resolved and pending at the mandal, divisional and district levels. Acknowledgement receipts must be issued for every petition, she said.

During a review of pending applications, the Collector sought explanations from officials of departments, including Panchayat Raj, Registration, Electricity, RTC and Irrigation, which had a considerable number of unresolved petitions. She directed them to accord priority to their disposal and explain the reasons to applicants in cases that could not be resolved at the district level.

The Collector said that 5,943 petitions had been received through the district-level Prajavani programme between May and October 2026, of which 4,880 had been disposed of. The remaining 1,063 applications were pending for various reasons and the concerned departments had been instructed to take steps for their resolution. She also stated that all petitions received through the Chief Minister's Prajavani programme had been resolved.

She further called upon officials to focus on the disposal of pending court cases involving various government departments.

Ms. Mishra said the district administration was taking cognisance of public grievances highlighted in print, electronic and social media and initiating necessary action. She also instructed the District Public Relations Officer's office to ensure that photographs of the Prajavani programme reached media representatives promptly after its conclusion.

The Collector directed all district-level officers to submit their weekly tour diaries to the District Revenue Officer. They should prepare advance tour programmes for the following week and furnish details of their field visits at the end of each week.

Officials should use field inspections to identify people's problems and local requirements, which would subsequently be discussed at district-level review meetings. The objective should be to ensure coordinated action for resolving public grievances, she said.

The Collector said the State Government had scheduled inaugurations of completed government buildings across all districts on November 19. These included V.O. buildings, gram panchayat offices, Anganwadi centres and additional school classrooms.

She instructed Panchayat Raj officials to prepare lists of completed buildings proposed for inauguration and share them with the respective mandal authorities. Mandal-level and special officers were asked to inspect the sites and complete all arrangements in their respective jurisdictions well ahead of the scheduled date.

As many as 92 petitions were received during Monday's Prajavani programme at the IDOC. The Karimnagar Municipal Corporation accounted for 19 petitions, followed by the Housing Department with 16 and the Karimnagar Revenue Divisional Officer's office with 12.

Additional Collectors Ashwini Tanaji Wakade and Srinivas Reddy, District Revenue Officer Swamy and officials of various departments attended the meeting.

Siraj Hussain appointed TPCC spokesperson Appointment orders issued in recognition of his 20 years of service to the Congress.

Karimnagar November 09, Khaja Sikandar Mohiuddin (Correspondent): Senior Congress leader S.K. Siraj Hussain from Karimnagar has been appointed as an official spokesperson of the Telangana Pradesh Congress Committee (TPCC), in recognition of his two decades of service to the party.

The appointment orders were issued by Chamala Kiran Kumar Reddy, MP and chairman of the TPCC Media and Publicity Department.

Mr. Hussain has been associated with the Congress since his student days and has held several organisational positions, including general secretary of the Karimnagar District Congress Committee, State secretary of the Youth Congress in undivided Andhra Pradesh, member of the District Waqf Board and president of the Mahadevpur Mandal Minority Cell. He is currently the TPCC coordinator for the Bhupalpally Assembly constituency.

He actively participated in the Bharat Jodo Yatra led by Rahul Gandhi, travelling across Telangana alongside Chief Minister A. Revanth Reddy and Minister Ponnam Prabhakar. During the 2023 Assembly elections, he served as the chief election agent for the Congress candidate in Karimnagar and campaigned for party nominees across the erstwhile Karimnagar district. He also worked for the party candidate during the 2024 Lok Sabha elections.

His organisational assignments included serving as an observer for the AICC Minority Department during the Gulbarga Lok Sabha elections and for the Chunchura Assembly constituency during the 2026 West Bengal Assembly elections. He also worked as an SIR master trainer in the Bhupalpally constituency.

Apart from political activities, Mr. Hussain has been involved in social service initiatives, including facilitating welfare benefits for the poor and distributing food packets, vegetables and essential supplies during the COVID-19 pandemic. He has also organised free medical camps and served as an adviser to the District Minority Employees Association. He has earlier worked as a correspondent for Telugu and Urdu publications.

Welcoming the appointment, Mr. Hussain said he would work to communicate the State government's welfare and development programmes effectively to the public and counter what he described as misinformation against the government with facts. He said he would also strive to take the party's policies, decisions of the high command and people's concerns to the public through the media.

He thanked Chief Minister A. Revanth Reddy, TPCC president Mahesh Kumar Goud, Chamala Kiran Kumar Reddy, Ministers Duddilla Sridhar Babu and Ponnam Prabhakar, Karimnagar DCC president and MLA Medipalli Satyam, Manakondur MLA Kavvampalli Satyanarayana and other party leaders for supporting his appointment.

He said he viewed the new responsibility as an opportunity to serve as a link between the party and the people, particularly in Karimnagar district.

Since its launch in June 2022, with its distinctive design, German engineering credentials, engaging driving dynamics, premium experience and focus on safety, the Virtus has emerged as a favorite making it the most loved premium sedan in its segment. The New Virtus builds on this legacy, bringing a fresh visual character while retaining the qualities that have made it a segment favourite."Commenting on the upcoming launch, Nitin Kohli, Brand Director, Volkswagen India, said, "We are excited to introduce the New Virtus to the Indian market. The Virtus has built a strong connect with its discerning set of customers and has clearly established a leading position in its segment as a stylish, sophisticated and performance-oriented sedan offering great driving pleasure. With this facelift, we are building on a much-loved product, bringing a fresh and contemporary character while retaining the qualities that make the Virtus special. We look forward to continuing to bring the joy of driving to our customers with the New Virtus.""For its customers, the Virtus is more than just a sedan; it represents a sense of pride, aspiration and individuality, bringing together a premium ownership experience with the thrill of driving. Its distinctive road presence, performance and German engineering have made it a car that customers are proud to own and enjoy. Adding a new dimension to this established character, the refreshed design draws inspiration from triangular geometry, bringing greater definition and a contemporary edge to the sedan's already distinctive presence. The New Virtus continues to celebrate the joy of driving while staying true to the qualities that have made it a favourite among Volkswagen customers."Stay tuned. More details of the New Virtus will be revealed soon.
