SIR exercise must be completed transparently, says Chief Electoral Officer

C. Sudarshan Reddy directs Collectors to verify deletion lists thoroughly and dispose of claims within stipulated deadlines.

Karimnagar November 02, Khaja Sikandar Mohiuddin (Correspondent): Chief Electoral Officer C. Sudarshan Reddy has directed District Collectors to ensure that the Special Intensive Revision (SIR-2026) of electoral rolls in Telangana is conducted in a transparent manner and in strict accordance with the Election Commission of India's guidelines, stressing that no eligible voter should be left out of the electoral rolls.

Addressing District Collectors, District Election Officers and other officials through a video conference on Monday, he reviewed the progress of the revision exercise, pending applications and the arrangements for publication of the final electoral rolls. Karimnagar Collector Chitra Mishra participated in the conference from her camp office.

Mr. Sudarshan Reddy instructed officials to undertake thorough field-level verification of voters listed under the Absent, Shifted and Dead (ASD) category. The particulars of absent voters, those who had shifted residence, deceased persons and duplicate entries must be verified with appropriate supporting documents. He cautioned officials against deleting the names of eligible voters without proper inquiry and adherence to the prescribed procedure.

He emphasised that every entry in the deletion list must be carefully examined and the reasons for proposed deletion, along with supporting evidence, duly recorded. Objections and explanations submitted by voters and the documents furnished by them must be considered before taking a decision.

The CEO directed officials to expedite the disposal of applications received under Forms 6, 7 and 8. While Form 6 relates to the inclusion of new voters, Form 7 covers objections to electoral roll entries and requests for deletion, and Form 8 facilitates corrections to voter particulars, including changes of address. All applications must be examined and disposed of within the stipulated timeframe, ensuring that none remain pending.

He further instructed officials to issue speaking orders, clearly explaining the reasons and evidence behind every decision involving the inclusion, deletion or modification of names in the electoral rolls. Notices, proof of service, inquiry reports, documents submitted by voters and other relevant records must be systematically maintained to facilitate verification in case of future objections or appeals.

Every voter served with a notice must be given a reasonable opportunity to submit an explanation and present their case, he said. Field-level inquiries should be conducted responsibly, with the Election Commission's guidelines followed at every stage.

Mr. Sudarshan Reddy asked Collectors to regularly monitor district-wise progress in the verification of ASD and deletion lists and the disposal of applications under Forms 6, 7 and 8. He stressed the need for another round of scrutiny before publication of the final electoral rolls to ensure that every eligible voter finds a place in the list.

In view of the revised schedule announced by the Election Commission of India, officials have been directed to complete the issuance of notices, inquiries and disposal of claims and objections by November 26, 2026. The final electoral rolls are scheduled to be published on November 30, 2026.

The Chief Electoral Officer called upon district officials to work in close coordination and complete the entire exercise within the prescribed deadlines.
