Diwali Greetings from Ragam Jangayya Yadav

"Serilingampalli Zone Nallagandla division: Warm Diwali wishes to all the people of Serilingampally. We celebrate the festival of Diwali to commemorate the liberation of the world from the clutches of the demon Narakasura—a symbol of the triumph of good over evil.""May this Diwali fill every home with the light of joy. May every family be blessed with peace, happiness, and prosperity. I hope that new aspirations blossom in everyone's life.""Every lamp we light should bring radiance not only to our own homes but also to society at large. Bringing happiness into the lives of others should also be an integral part of our celebrations. Let us understand the message conveyed by our festivals and move forward together in a spirit of mutual cooperation and unity. Wishing everyone a very happy Diwali—the festival of lights!

Another Opportunity for Those Who Lost Their Vote During the SIR Process; Eligible Individuals Should Make Use of It – District Election Officer and Collector Anurag Jayanti

""(Yadadri Bhuvanagiri District Bureau, Indian Chronicle, November 7): As part of the Special Summary Revision (SSR) of the electoral rolls, the Election Commission of India has provided a fresh opportunity for individuals whose names were removed from the draft electoral roll due to reasons such as being absent, unavailable at the registered address, death, or being a duplicate entry (categorized as ASDD—Absent, Shifted, Dead, or Duplicate). Eligible voters can now have their names reinstated in the electoral roll by submitting the relevant enumeration form along with a self-declaration document. The Election Commission has relaxed the previous requirement that mandated the submission of 'Form-6' for this purpose."These provisions are now in effect in the state of Telangana as well. Voters should contact their local Booth Level Officer (BLO), Electoral Registration Officer (ERO), or Assistant Electoral Registration Officer (AERO) to submit the necessary details and documentation."Those who have already submitted an enumeration form do not need to submit it again. Voters who have changed their address must provide details regarding their new address, along with information about their assembly constituency. For the convenience of voters, the Election Commission has made the necessary forms available through its website and the 'ECI Net' app. Therefore, all eligible individuals whose names are missing from the electoral roll are urged to take advantage of this opportunity, submit the required documents to the relevant authorities, and reclaim their right to vote. In a democracy, the right to vote is of immense value; every eligible person should utilize this opportunity to ensure they do not lose their voting rights.

Rs 50 Crore Scam in ESI Department; Demand for Immediate Removal of Joint Director: Vemula Maraiah

Irregularities in Cleaning Contracts – Work Allotted to Favoured Individuals Through Nomination Basis
Poor Medical Services to Workers – Demand for Comprehensive ACB Investigation

""Nacharam, November 7(INDIAN CHORNICLE):""Vemula Maraiah, State General Secretary of BRTU and ESIC Board Member, has alleged large-scale corruption in the Employees' State Insurance (ESI) medical system, which was established to provide healthcare services to workers.""He alleged that irregularities worth approximately ?50 crore had taken place in sanitation and cleaning contracts at ESI hospitals and dispensaries, including an alleged scam of ?30 crore in the current year alone.""Addressing a press conference at his office in HMT Nagar on Friday, Maraiah alleged that IMS Joint Director Gautam had been awarding contracts to individuals of his choice through the nomination process, in violation of established rules, resulting in the misuse of government funds.""He stated that the cleaning and maintenance costs, which were previously between ?5 and ?10 per square foot, had reportedly been increased to ?72–?136 per square foot. He criticised the authorities for allegedly allotting contracts to favoured individuals instead of following transparent online tendering procedures and formal agreements.""He further alleged that these irregularities were taking place with the involvement and coordination of officials, including the Principal Secretary of the Labour Department.""He said that irregularities had been reported in sanitation contracts at ESI hospitals and dispensaries located in Nacharam, Jeedimetla, Patancheru, Warangal, Karimnagar, Nizamabad and other parts of Telangana.""He also pointed out that contract workers were not receiving their wages on time, forcing them to resort to protests.""Serious Negligence in Medical Services""Maraiah stated that approximately 25 lakh workers across Telangana, including nearly 15 lakh workers in Hyderabad, were covered under the ESI scheme.""He expressed concern that despite substantial contributions being collected from employees' salaries and employers, adequate medical facilities were not being provided in ESI hospitals.""He particularly highlighted the shortage of essential medicines for cancer patients and the lack of crucial diagnostic facilities, including CT scans and MRI services, at the Sanath Nagar ESI Hospital and other medical centres.""He alleged that even in emergency situations, patients were being asked to return the following day for scanning procedures, potentially putting their lives at risk.""He also recalled an incident in Miryalaguda where an ESI dispensary operating in a rented building was locked by the property owner due to non-payment of rent, causing severe inconvenience to patients seeking medical treatment.""Furthermore, he alleged that some doctors were not attending their duties regularly and were instead concentrating on their private clinics, indirectly encouraging patients to seek treatment at private hospitals.""Demand for Immediate Government Intervention""Vemula Maraiah demanded that the State Government immediately intervene in the matter, remove IMS Joint Director Gautam from his post and initiate appropriate action against the concerned Principal Secretary.""He also demanded a comprehensive investigation by the Anti-Corruption Bureau (ACB) into the alleged financial irregularities and misuse of public funds, and strict action against all those found responsible.""He warned that if the government failed to respond, workers' unions would intensify their agitation by organising dharnas, road blockades and submitting complaints to higher authorities.""Haribabu and others participated in the press conference.

Revanth Reddy defends government's stand on Kanepally pump operations

Kodangal: Chief Minister A Revanth Reddy on Saturday was back to his usual vitriolitic attack in criticising BRS leaders for demanding the operation of the Kanepally pump to lift water for irrigation and drinking purposes. He said the leaders should be punished for their demand, despite substantial quantities of Godavari water flowing downstream into the sea every day.

Addressing the Mega Rythu Mela in Kodangal, Revanth Reddy said BRS leaders had demanded that the Kanepally pump be operated to lift water and supply it to Hyderabad for drinking purposes. He said they should be buried up to their necks at the same spot as punishment for the injustice they had allegedly committed in the past.

Explaining the government's position, the Chief Minister said the Medigadda barrage was designed to store 16 TMCft of water. Water could be lifted from the Kanepally pump house when the barrage was full. However, with the gates of the Annaram and Sundilla barrages kept open, there was no point in lifting water from Kanepally, he argued. "The BRS leaders lack this basic knowledge," he said.

Revanth Reddy said the government was storing water flowing from Medigadda at Tupakulagudem. The same water was being lifted through the Devadula project and supplied to farmers, he explained. He added that water flowing downstream from the Devadula project was being stored under the Sitarama project. It was then supplied to lakhs of acres in the erstwhile Khammam district.

Arrests of Christian Women in Almasguda Are Undemocratic

Christian Organisations Express Outrage Over Police Conduct; Demand Strict Action Against Those Who Attacked Women

““HYDERABAD, November 7 (Indian Chronicle):““Christian women staged a protest under the leadership of Pettina Angel, Telangana State President of the All India Christian Council, condemning the police for allegedly failing to register appropriate cases against those who attacked Christian women in Almasguda and for handling the case in a manner that enabled the accused to secure bail immediately.““Demanding stringent action against those responsible for the attack, women belonging to various Christian organisations staged a peaceful protest at Almasguda crossroads. However, the All India Christian Council strongly condemned the arrest of women who participated in the protest by the Meerpet and Balapur police.““Leaders of Christian, Dalit and women's organisations expressed serious anger, alleging that instead of ensuring strict punishment for those involved in attacks on women, the Congress government was allowing the accused to receive police support. They demanded justice for the victimised women and called for stringent legal action against those responsible for the attack.““Women Arrested:““The women arrested include Bettina Lanka, Usha, Vasantha, Vijaya, Rekha, Swapna, Mary Anima, Ratnakumari and Mercy, among others.““Representatives of Christian organisations stated that arresting women who were peacefully exercising their right to protest amounted to suppressing democratic rights. They reiterated their demand for justice for the victims and strict action against the perpetrators.

As it is noted that several women were arrested in connection with such illegal trade in previous. As Bettiah rail police recovered contraband heroine in previous and arrested two ladies in this connection. Not only this in several areas of Bihar the involvement of women has come to the light in smuggling of contraband items..It seems that the big gang of smugglers tried to use women courier in this trade .““Ajay Kr Mishra “Bettiah/Bihar

District Collector calls for Diwali celebrations in Indiramma beneficiaries' new homes

Elected representatives and officials urged to join families marking their first festival in their own houses.

Karimnagar November 07, Khaja Sikandar Mohiuddin (Correspondent): District Collector Chitra Mishra has called for grand celebrations under the State government's 'Maa Indiramma Intlo Deepavali' initiative, urging elected representatives and officials to celebrate Diwali with families who are marking their first festival in newly constructed Indiramma houses.

Unveiling the programme poster at her chamber in the Integrated District Offices Complex (IDOC) here on Saturday, she said the initiative should bring festive cheer to the families who had realised their long-cherished dream of owning a house.

She asked public representatives and officials to visit the beneficiaries' homes, interact with their families and participate in the celebrations. The programme should be organised in a manner that allows beneficiaries to share the happiness of owning their first home during the festival of lights, she said.

Ms. Mishra stressed the need for coordinated efforts by officials to ensure that every beneficiary family experienced the joy of the celebrations.

Additional Collector (Revenue) D. Srinivas Reddy, District Revenue Officer Swamy, the Project Director of the Housing Department and other officials were present.

Differently-abled youth critical after suicide bid, alleges harassment by BJP corporator

Karimanagar: Medical condition of a differently abled youngster, who attempted suicide by consuming mosquito repellent over alleged harassment of BJP corporator targeting his brother, was reported to be critical on Saturday.

The youngster, Shiva, tried to end his life at the cable-stayed bridge on the outskirts of the town on Friday night. He was shifted to a hospital and kept under medical observation for 48 hours. It was learned that his condition deteriorated. Even after 24 hours of treatment, his condition remained critical, a source said.

Earlier, Shiva recorded a selfie video before the attempt. He accused Somidi Venugopal, a corporator of division 29, of threatening to demolish their house in Kisannagar for not cooperating with him during recent elections to Karimnagar Municipal Corporation.In the video that later went viral on social media, he said he hoped that his family would get justice after his death. He alleged that Venugopal, a close associate of Union minister of State for Home Affairs Bandi Sanjay, had offered Rs 4 lakh to his brother to endorse his candidature before the elections.

Shiva claimed that Venugopal developed animosity towards his brother after differences emerged over the offer and allegedly threatened to wipe out the family. The youngster alleged that municipal officials served a notice stating that their house would be demolished after Venugopal became a corporator. He said that he was unable to stand by his brother, who was allegedly being targeted by Venugopal.

Motorola unveils signature 27 flagship smartphone with advanced AI and 200MP camera

Motorola has introduced the signature 27, its latest flagship smartphone, featuring a 200MP periscope camera, advanced AI capabilities, a bright AMOLED display, Bang & Olufsen audio, a 7,000mAh battery and planned GrapheneOS support, with global availability expected in the coming months.

Hyderabad: Motorola, a Lenovo company, has unveiled the motorola signature 27, its most advanced flagship smartphone to date, combining premium design, advanced camera technology, artificial intelligence (AI) capabilities and enhanced performance.

The smartphone features a 200MP periscope telephoto camera, a 50MP Sony LYTIA main camera and a 50MP ultra-wide camera. Its camera system has received the DXOMARK Gold Label for imaging performance, according to the company. A dedicated EVS action sensor, described as a first for smartphones, is designed to capture fast-moving subjects with greater clarity.

The device also features AI-powered video enhancement, Dolby Vision support and advanced image stabilisation. Its 50MP front camera supports 4K video recording.

On the display front, the motorola signature 27 comes with an Extreme AMOLED Duo Tandem display, which Motorola describes as the brightest smartphone display available. It offers up to 12,000 nits of peak brightness, 1.5K resolution and Dolby Vision support. The company also claims improved energy efficiency and a longer lifespan compared with traditional AMOLED panels.

Powered by the Snapdragon 8 Elite Extreme Gen 6 Mobile Platform, the smartphone is designed to support demanding gaming, AI applications and high-speed connectivity. Its ArcticMesh cooling system features micro-diamond-infused thermal gel and a larger thermal chamber to manage heat during intensive use. The device also supports Wi-Fi 8 and promises seven years of operating system upgrades.

AI features include Google Gemini, Motorola Qira, Rambler, Create My Widget and Sign-to-Text. These tools are designed to assist with tasks, text editing, personalised widgets and accessibility. Google Gemini's advanced capabilities are expected to roll out to supported devices in the coming months.

Another major highlight is Audio by Bang & Olufsen, making the device the only smartphone currently offering this audio partnership, according to Motorola.

The smartphone features an aluminium frame, Corning Gorilla Glass Ceramic 3 protection, military-grade durability certification and IP68 and IP69 ratings. It will be offered in PANTONE Coal Smoke and PANTONE Capulet Olive finishes.

A 7,000mAh battery powers the device, supported by 90W wired and 50W wireless charging.

Motorola has also announced plans to make the signature 27 its first smartphone to support GrapheneOS, a security-focused, open-source operating system, through a partnership with the GrapheneOS Foundation.

The motorola signature 27 will be launched in markets worldwide in the coming months, with a starting recommended retail price of $1,599. Local pricing and availability are yet to be announced.
